GEORGE TOWN

COLLEGE,

In the diſtrict of Columbia, United States of America, under the direction of the Incorporated Catholic Clergy of the ſtate of Maryland.

I. The annual penſion of this eſtabliſhment is two hundred and twenty dollars; but for children under twelve years of age, only two hundred dollars will be required. Thoſe ſtudents who continue their education through the claſſes of Philoſophy ſhall on account of extraordinary expenſes and ſome particular indulgencies allowed them, pay two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The penſion is to be paid half yearly in advance. A deduction of fifty dollars per annum will be allowed to thoſe parents who may chooſe to charge themſelves with the detail of clothing their children. The college will furniſh waſhing and mending; but will not keep particular accounts, or become anſwerable for clothing provided by parents.

II. In lieu of bed linen, table ſervice ſchool books, and other articles uſually required on entering eſtabliſhments of this kind, each ſtudent ſhall pay ten dollars entrance money.

III. The Sunday or holiday dreſs is uniform, and conſiſts of a plain coat of blue cloth, with yellow buttons, red cloth or kerſeymere waiſtcoats. The uſe of ſilk is not permitted—Every ſtudent ſhall bring with him his uniform dreſs, beſides a ſuit for daily wear, ſix ſhirts, ſix neck handkerchiefs, ſix pocket handkerchiefs, ſix pair of ſtockings, and three pair of ſhoes, all new. Any deficiency in the above will be charged to the parents.

IV. On the above terms the ſtudents are furniſhed with clothes, linen, waſhing, mending, lodging, board, fire, candle, table, ſchool books, pen, ink, paper, amuſements, and ſchool rewards; ſo that nothing will remain to the charge of the parents, but medical attendance and medicines, poſtage, and ſuch extra leſſons of drawing, dancing, muſic, &c. which they may chooſe to order for their children.

V. The religion, uniformly practiced by the ſtudents living in the college, is the Roman Catholic; but for ſtudents of other religious perſuaſions there are boarding houſes, convenient to the college, where they will be ſubject to the ſame rules (religion excepted) and enjoy the ſame advantages for their improvement in ſcience as the penſioners of the college.

VI. Out Boarders muſt be furniſhed by their parents with the uniform of the college, and pay annually for tuition, fire, candle, ſchool books, pen, ink, paper, amuſements ſchool rewards, &c. fifty dollars, always half yearly in advance.

VII The ſtudents are taught Engliſh, Latin, Greek, and all the branches of Claſſical Education, ſacred and profane Hiſtory, Geography, the uſe of the Globes, Arithmetic, and when ſufficiently advanced Algebra and Geometry, with all the other parts of the Mathematics in the reſpective claſſes. Particular care is taken that they learn to read well, and write a good hand, and that they ſpeak and write French with accuracy. Four times a year the ſtudents are called to a public examination of what they been taught before Parents and the Friends of Literature. Thoſe who have made extraordinary progreſs are honored and rewarded. The idle, for puniſhment, are confined in the vacation to certain extraordinary hours of ſtudy during play time, in order to repair what they have neglected to learn in ſchools; therefore, if they are found defective in the laſt and moſt important examination of the year, before the Auguſt vacation, they will not be allowed to go home during that time.

VIII The age of admiſſion is from eight to fourteen. When children are not ſufficiently advanced to begin a regular courſe of claſſical education, they are placed in an elementary claſs, attended by a particular teacher, from whom they learn to ſpell, read, and write.

IX. If the children ſent to this College have been before at any other houſe of education, an atteſtation of their morals and docility is required.

X. The greateſt care is taken to inſtruct the children in the duties of Religion and Morality, and they are conſtantly under the eye of one or more of the Profeſſors who ſee that thoſe duties are practiſed, and that the rules of civility are not violated.

XI. Cleanlineſs and exerciſe, and every thing which contributes to health, are attended to with particular care.

XII. All the penſioners dine and ſup with their profeſſors, and have the ſame table which they have. No diſtinctions are allowed in diet or clothing.

XIII. As long experience has convinced the directors, that a profuſion of pocket money is very prejudicial not only to good order, but even to ſtudy and application, they therefore requeſt that parents will not be forward in indulging their children in more than fifty cents at moſt per month, for this purpoſe—

XIV No allowance is made for abſence during the vacation, which begins on the 15th Auguſt and ends the 15th of September. To theſe terms the parents are deſired to be particularly attentive, in caſe they chooſe to call their children home, as the abſence of a few weeks at the opening of ſchools is ſeldom repaired without very great difficulty. Abſence from ſchools at no other time will be permitted. It is indeed the moſt ſerious and earneſt deſire of the Directors, that the children ſhould never be called home during the courſe of their education, as they have found by experience, that ſuch avocations have often proved prejudicial, not only to ſtudy and application, but even to content and happineſs. Thoſe children who may be received into the college upon other funds, either totally or partially, than thoſe provided by their parents or guardians, will not be allowed to go home or abſent themſelves from the college during the full courſe of their education, unleſs particular circumſtances in the judgment of the Preſident ſhould require permiſſion of abſence for a time.

XV. When children are removed from the College, whatever new linen or clothes are furniſhed them on that occaſion, will be charged to their parents. After entering on a new quarter no deduction will be made for the remaining part thereof.

The College is a large building, capable of lodging two hundred perſons conveniently.—The garden and court adjoining, where the young gentlemen play, are very airy and ſpacious. The ſituation is very pleaſant and healthy.

It will contribute much to the advantage of the children, if parents on ſending them will inform the Preſident how long they propoſe to leave them at the College, and for what employments in life they are deſigned. The regular courſe of education is properly claſſical; but ſuch as are deſtined for the commercial line, have a leſſon of Arithmetic and Book-Keeping, under a particular Profeſſor appointed for that purpoſe.

N. B. The above Regulations and Conditions will take place from the 15th day of Auguſt, 1804, for all ſuch as enter at, or after that period; but for others, they will only commence at the expiration of the ſix months, for which the advance payment had become due prior to that term.

Right Rev. LEONARD NEALE,
Preſident.

Is to lett for a term of three years. The ſubſcriber being proprietor of the above premiſes and having latterly met very unexpectedly with troubles of a domeſtic nature which has greatly diſconcerted him and conſequently injured his buſineſs.

The public in general, and his friends in particular are notified that he gratefully acknowledges the liberal ſupport they have given him ſince he commenced the tavern line, and begs they will not forſake him, as he has a larger and better aſſortment of liquors than he ever had before, and in addition thereto he has ice and fruit, alſo a variety of newſpapers. He pledges himſelf to double (if poſſible) his exertions to pleaſe and accommodate all who may call on him, until a ſuitable tenant can be had.

A deſcription of the property is thought needleſs as it is known and preſumed that no one will rent without viewing the premiſes.

This lottery has been authoriſed by the legiſlature of Virginia, for the laudable purpoſes of erecting a ſeminary of learning in or near the metropolis of this ſtate. With this view, it is contemplated to raiſe 20,000 dolls. and 2,500 dolls. in addition, for defraying the expences attendant on drawing the lottery. Citizens of the firſt reſpectability have been ſelected as truſtees, and they have pledged themſelves to uſe their utmoſt exertions to carry it into effect. The ſcheme has the advantage of giving to each adventurer, a chance for ſome very large prizes, whilſt the proportion of prizes to blanks, is ſo great as to invite the friends of the intended inſtitution to partake in the lottery, with very little riſque of their becoming loſers. The treaſurer of the ſtate is to be appointed to receive the money for the tickets as they are ſold, and to pay the amount of the prizes to the fortunate adventurers. It is believed that the above conſiderations will induce a rapid ſale of tickets, and the drawing will commence as ſoon as a ſufficient number ſhall be ſold to authoriſe it——which it is believed will be on the ſecond Monday in December next.

Dr. Jacob Hall, of Harford county, of known literary character, to whoſe inſpection theſe Poems were ſubmitted, in a letter to the author, expreſſes his opinion of them, as follows:

MADAM,

I have been honored and gratified with the peruſal of your manuſcript copy of Poems. In my opinion it is a work of conſiderable merit, and diſplays true piety and poetic genius. The paſtoral dialogues are commendable for their novelty, ſimplicity and beauty. The elegies, epiſtles, and eſpecially the "Man of Misfortune," a Moral Tale, are intereſting and pathetic. The Odes and Fugitive Pieces are ſprightly and amuſing—And the whole compoſition ſeems to breathe ſuch a ſpirit of philanthropy and benevolence as cannot fail to elevate the affections, and to mend the heart—And it is to be regretted, that the author's modeſty has hitherto denied the community ſo refined & elegant an entertainment.
