District of Columbia, Washington county, to wit:

UPON the petition of JEREMIAH CONNER, an inſolvent debtor confined in jail in the county of Waſhington, in the diſtrict of Columbia praying relief under the act of Congreſs, entitled, "An act for the relief of inſolvent debtors within the diſtrict of Columbia," notice is hereby given to the creditors of ſaid Jeremiah Conner, that on the 29th day of April, at 9 o'clock, A. M. at the court room in the Capitol the oath of an inſolvent debtor will be adminiſtered to the ſaid Jeremiah Conner, and a truſtee appointed agreeably to the ſaid act, unleſs ſufficient cauſe then and there be ſhewn to the contrary.

It is ordered that this notice be publiſhed twice in the National Intelligencer and Waſhington Federaliſt before that day.

By order of the hon. Wm. Cranch, eſquire, aſſiſtant judge of the Circuit court of the diſtrict of Columbia.

U. FORREST, Ck.

THE Public have ſeen of late, my petition for the benefit of the Inſolvent act In order to a right underſtanding of the cauſe of my being reduced to that very diſagreeable dilemma, I would barely ſtate, that, being in the year 1801, ſpecial bail, together with a perſon who has ſince left America, for a man reſiding a conſiderable diſtance from this city, and who has been about two years in jail; executions were obtained againſt me at this court; that intending to leave the diſtrict, I ſome time ſince, applied to the gentleman who had the management of the ſuits, and offered him my bond, payable in annual inſtalments, for any ſum I could raiſe from my induſtry in three or four years, if farther proceſs in the buſineſs would be ſtopped; he ſaid, he had it not in his power to accede to my propoſition.

It is well known to ſome of the moſt reſpectable gentlemen in the diſtrict, that I had both legal and friendly council, from men who would not adviſe me to any thing diſhoneſt, or diſhonorable, to take the benefit of the inſolvent act immediately, which I would not conſent to—but executions being ſoon after ſerved upon me, and not having money to pay the debt, I was under the neceſſity of availing myſelf of the proviſions of a law I never expected or intended to ſhelter myſelf under.

Except in the caſe of the perſon for whom I was bail, I had but two creditors—one, my particular and old friend, to whom upon a final ſettlement, there might be due between 30 and 40 dollars—the other, a perſon who in the opinion of my lawyer and myſelf, could hardly be conſidered as ſuch; but as I had ſome doubts upon the ſubject, he was returned a creditor.

My affairs and the debts due to me, were conſiderably more than what was due to my creditors; yet it was beyond my power to avoid what has befallen me. If my creditors were more numerous than they are, I would not heſitate to ſay, that notwithſtanding my having got clear by the Inſolvent Law I would as ſoon as able, diſcharge every debt due on my own account.

It is with much reluctance I would at any time trouble the public with my affairs; but I owed it to my character, to give this plain ſtatement of facts.

JEREMIAH CONNER.
