RALPH LANE, Centreville,

wtf Fairfax county, Virginia.

An extensive Field for Speculation, is offered in the Sale of the

POWHATAN ESTATE,

Which lies contiguous to the lower limits of Richmond, contains 3000 acres of land, borders near a mile on James river, and runs 5 miles back.

The principal part is fine grain land, covered with valuable timber, convenient to a ſaw mill erected thereon, which has cut 1700 feet per day and connected with a griſt and manufacturing mill, on a conſtant ſtream with two pair of ſtones.

There is a ſmall farm, with a commodious brick manſion, ice houſe, the uſual offices, and two fiſheries.

It has many elegant ſeites for building, furniſhed with good water, commanding views of the city, falls and ſhipping, which lie oppoſite to them.

There is a beautiful level already laid out into lots, at right angles, on the river.

The peculiar advantages of this property are multiplied by a late act for the eſtabliſhment of an inſpection of Tobacco on it, and the act for uniting the upper and lower navigation by locks, which as the proper point of junction render it valuable for ſtore houſes.

Few perſons are unacquainted with the political importance of Richmond, as the capital of the moſt influential ſtate of the union, nor its commercial advantages from the immenſe quantities of coal, flour and tobacco, which paſs through its market—and will it be neceſſary to add? that theſe advantages will be ſhortly increaſed by the weſtern produce brought through the Kanawha to this navigation and depoſit, to be thence ſhipped directly abroad when the contemplated improvement of the lower navigation ſhall be complete.

It is ſubmitted to monied men to conſider whether a purchaſe by ſhares either to ſell out or improve parts of this growing eſtate, would not in a few years afford a certain and handſome remuneration for their attention; being free from thoſe contingencies to which many inſtitutions are liable.

In ſuch an eſtabliſhment the proprietor would willingly participate. A liberal credit will be allowed the purchaſers on payment of intereſt and further particulars made known by applying to Mr. Robert Atkinſon near Peterſburg, Mr. Alexander Fulton, Baltimore, Meſſrs. Proſſer and Moncure, Richmond, or the ſubſcriber on the premiſes.

IRON WORKS FOR SALE.

IN Wythe county ſtate of Virginia, on Cripple Creek about 15 miles from the Great Kanhawa and 40 miles from the north fork of Holſton which affords a tolerable ſafe navigation to a prodigious ſcope of the weſtern country, where perhaps iron is in greater demand than any other quarter of the United States.

Cripple Creek affords a ſufficiency of water for both forge and furnace, being fed by bold never failing ſprings. The furnace and all the buildings have been commenced within 4 or 5 years—they conſiſt of dwelling houſes, kitchens and a ſtore houſe; alſo, a large and convenient ſtable—the forge has not long been completed. It is ſuppoſed to be the beſt built forge in Virginia, being cut of choice timber felled at proper ſeaſons and executed by a firſt rate forge carpenter from Pennſylvania. It works three fires and two hammers, is ſixty feet long and fifty wide, well covered with joint ſhingles. There are between 7 and 800 acres of land attached to theſe works, ſome of it of excellent ſoil, and any quantity may be procured within 6 or 8 miles for from 1 to 8 dollars per acre.—The ore banks appear to be inexhauſtible, lying within one mile of the furnace and good roads. From one of the banks the ore may be conveyed by water within 10 ſteps of the furnace, with the inconſiderable expence of 40 or 50 dollars.

The quality of the iron is acknowledged by thoſe who have uſed it to be equal to any. It is particularly ſought for by lock makers, ſaddle tree platers, cutlers, &c.

The demand for iron in that country is far beyond what is made, and is ſelling from 40 to 50l. per ton. I have no heſitation to ſay, contracts on not a very long credit can be had for almoſt any quantity yearly, as from that quarter a conſiderable portion of the weſtern country is ſupplied.

As it is ſuppoſed a purchaſe of this magnitude would not be made, without a view of the property by thoſe inclined to purchaſe, it is deemed unneceſſary to give a further deſcription.

Letters addreſſed to me at Abington, Virginia, will be duly attended to.

I will also sell my

SALT WORKS

On Holſten in Waſhington county Virginia, which is now rented at 10,000 Dolls. a year. I have adjoining to it between 5 and 6000 acres of land well covered with timber, a conſiderable proportion of which in point of fertility is equal to any land whatever, and will afford 3 or 400 acres of meadow, nearly 100 being now in good timothy. The buildings which are extenſive are in a good ſtate of preſervation.
