Accountant Clerk in reference to the adjustment of the liabilities of the Edenderry and Lowtherstown Unions on the alteration of the boundaries of those Unions.

In every department in which you were employed, you gave entire satisfaction to your Superintendents, and established a high character for diligence and assiduity.

You resigned your situation in the Office voluntarily on the 30th November 1858, stating that you did so owing to the state of your health.

By order of the Commissioners.

B. Banks.

Chief Clerk.

To
A. Phillips Esq.
Dolier Street
Dublin.