PUBLIC SALE.

IN virtue of an order iſſued from the hon. court of Calvert county, will be offered at public ſale, on the 28th day of Auguſt next, (if fair, if not, the firſt fair day thereafter) at the late manſion of Benjamin Ward, deceaſed, at the hour of 12 o'clock, a valuable plantation, containing 184 acres of Land, lying on the Cheſapeake Bay, in Calvert county. The improvements are a ſmall dwelling houſe, kitchen, tobacco houſe, corn houſe, and other out houſes; a large orchard of fine fruit. This fertile ſpot has every advantage, it abounds in heavy timber, and has a great proportion of rich low ground, capable of being made into meadow at a very trifling expence. The ſoil is extremely rich—tobacco, wheat, rye, and Indian corn, grow with little labour—the neighbourhood affords a ſociety of very genteel and friendly people—places of worſhip ſurround it—convenient to mills and a ware houſe for the inſpection of tobacco within two miles of the premiſes. This Land will be laid off in ſmall parcels, or ſold all together, as may beſt ſuit purchaſers.—Bond with approved ſecurity will be required, carrying intereſt from the day of ſale, payable in two equal payments, the firſt in 12, and the laſt in 18 months from the day of ſale.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY on the 9th inſt. from the ſubſcriber's farm near Frederick Town, (Maryland) a dark mulatto fellow named

MOSES,

But commonly called LANHAM,

He was raiſed near Piſcataway and ſold by a Mr. Burreſs to the late James Marſhall, deceaſed, of Frederick county. Lanham is about thirty years of age, nearly ſix feet high, ſtout and very active, fond of ſpirituous liquors, has been accuſtomed to working aboard ſhipping, likewiſe in a brick yard and is well acquainted with the management of horſes and with the ferrying buſineſs; he is a very artful fellow, and I expect he has obtained a paſs and will paſs under the name of Samuel Beall. He had on and took with him an oznaburg ſhirt & trowſers, a blue cloth coat with a black ſilk velvet cape bound with ſilk ferretting, a black fur hat nearly new, a pair of ſhoes nearly new, an old drab ſurtout coat, with ſundry other cloathing not recollected; he has a ſcar under one of his eyes but it is not recollected which, ſomewhat hard of hearing and round ſhoulder'd. From his acquaintance in the city of Waſhington I ſuppoſe he has made for that place or ſome other ſea port. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid fellow in any jail ſo that I get him again ſhall receive if taken ten miles from home eight dollars, if twenty miles ſixteen dollars, if thirty miles twenty dollars, if fifty miles thirty dollars, and if a greater diſtance the above reward with all reaſonable charges if brought home.

1500 DOLLARS REWARD.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock in the forenoon, Mr. JOHN PETER, an Officer of the BANK OF COLUMBIA, was ſtopped on horſeback on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about 2 miles of the latter place, by ſome unknown villain, ſhot through the body with a piſtol, and robbed of a ſum of money in his poſſeſſion belonging to this Inſtitution which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpoſe of exchanging with the banks there.

The whole ſum taken amounted Eighteen Thouſand One hundred and Fourteen Dollars and Sixty-five Cents, made up in ſeveral packages, among which were,

		Dol. C.
1	poſt note of the Bank of Virginia, for	800
1	do. of the ſame, for	500
1	do. of the ſame, for	500
1	do. of the ſame, for	450
1	do. of the Bank of Potomac in favor of Joſeph Riddle by him endorſed to Waſhington Bowie, dated 6 July, 1805, No 117	149 65

A check of the Union Bank, on the Bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higinbotham, caſhier, in favor of Greetham and Deverau, by them endorſed and by Benj. Stoddert, and C. Smith, Teller.

There were alſo a parcel of poſt notes of the Bank of Alexandria for 100 dolls. and for 50 dolls. each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and ſome few of the Bank of Virginia of different ſizes and denominations.

As the attack was ſudden, and the wound received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter inſtantly of his ſenſes, (although it is now hoped he will recover) the deſcription obtained may not be very accurate—as far as we are are informed—the man who perpetrated the act, is of middle ſtature, good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, ſhoes, and a black hat, he was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given to any perſon or perſons, who will detect and bring to conviction the robber: and ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any ſmaller ſum recovered—ſhould there be accomplices, and one of them make a diſcovery, ſo that it leads to the conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money he ſhall receive the above reward, and intereſt will be made to obtain his pardon.

SULLIVAN's LECTURES,

PROPOSALS

BY THOMAS B. WAIT & Co.

FOR PRINTING, BY SUBSCRIPTION,

AN HISTORICAL TREATISE

ON THE

FEUDAL LAW,

AND THE

CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF ENGLAND;

With a Commentary on Magna Charta, and Illustrations of many of the English Statutes.

BY THE LATE

FRANCIS STOUGHTON SULLIVAN, L. L. D.
Royal Professor of Common Law in the University of Dublin.

To which authorities are added, and a Diſcourſe is prefixed, concerning the Laws and Government of England,

BY GILBERT STUART, L. L. D.

THE Lectures of Profeſſor Sullivan, delivered to the Students in the Univerſity of Dublin, are in very high repute among all Lawyers of eminence, and have been uniformly recommended as an elementary book to thoſe young gentlemen who begin the ſtudy of Law with a view to render themſelves reſpectable in the profeſſion.

However obſolete the feudal policy may now ſeem to be, it having gradually diſappeared as mankind grew more civilized and became better acquainted with their natural and inalienable rights and privileges; yet a reſearch into the hiſtory of the government of juriſprudence of the nations of Europe, will ſatisfy any one, that many conſequences of that ſyſtem ſtill exiſt and influence the opinions and deciſions of the higheſt and moſt enlightened tribunals of juſtice. Every author who has undertaken to give a regular and ſyſtematic account of the riſe and progreſs of modern nations, has felt himſelf obliged to reſort to the hiſtory of feuds and feudal rights, as the fundamental principle from which all exiſting civil and political inſtitutions have taken their riſe; and every juriſt who has employed himſelf in explaining the conſtitution and laws of his country, has gone to the ſame ſource for the correct materials of his eſſays and diſſertations. Robertſon, in his hiſtory of the Emperor Charles V. has with great beauty and perſpicuity illuſtrated ſo much of the feudal policy as was neceſſary to enable the ſcientific reader to underſtand that valuable book; and Sir Wm. Blackſtone has in the courſe of his commentaries, led the ſtudent to a contemplation of the antient tenures, many of which depend upon the doctrine of feuds, as eſtabliſhed in England by the Norman conqueror.

But in both thoſe invaluable productions, the feudal policy was adverted to, only as incidental to the principal object of the authors, and therefore cannot be ſuppoſed to furniſh ſo complete and ſatisfactory an account, as would be given by ſo diſtinguiſhed a lawyer as profeſſor Sullivan, who declares the great purpoſe of his lectures to be the full diſcuſſion of the ſubject, which was of neceſſity but partially conſidered by the other writers.

This work has become ſo ſcarce in this country, as to be ſeldom ſeen, even on the ſhelves of a practiſing lawyer; a fact to be accounted for only by the difficulty of obtaining the book: for it cannot well be ſuppoſed that any one of the profeſſion, who has higher views than the mere pecuniary advantages of the practiſe, would willingly neglect an enquiry into thoſe ancient inſtitutions, upon which, notwithſtanding the lapſe of ages, moſt modern improvements are founded. But it is not to the profeſſion alone, that this book may be conſidered uſeful. In this riſing empire, where local knowledge to a certain degree is claimed by all, and actually poſſeſſed by many; a book which ſuccinctly and perſpicuouſly brings to view the laws, inſtitutions, manners and cuſtoms of thoſe nations from which our Engliſh anceſtors deſcended, muſt be peculiarly uſeful, as it will enable young politicians to trace all our civil regulations to their ſource, and thus to account methodically and ſcientifically for many modern uſages and practiſes, of which their knowledge is extremely ſuperficial. In this book they will ſee how our anceſtors ſtruggled for the eſtabliſhment of thoſe privileges which artful monarchs and a proud nobility were continually attempting to deſtroy; and they will alſo learn that the perſevering induſtry of the people, aided by the wealth which their ſkill and enterprize brought into the country, finally obtained a complete victory in the eſtabliſhment of principles and cuſtoms, which, tranſplanted into America by our progenitors, terminated in thoſe glorious conſtitutions which diſtinguiſh the people of America, for liberty and happineſs, from every other people on the earth.

CONDITIONS.

The work shall be elegantly printed, in two octavo volumes, on fine wove paper, with a new and beautiful type.

It will be delivered to Subscribers, bound in calf, at Five Dollars; and in boards, at Four Dollars.—To non-subscribers the price will be enhanced. No money will be required till the delivery of the work.

Those who subscribe for ten sets shall have one gratis. To booksellers the usual allowance will be made.

Portland, June 24—

HISTORY

Of the Weſt Indies:

A WORK in the contents of which every citizen of America muſt be intereſted, whether devoted to buſineſs, or deſirous of information through the medium of amuſement.

A new & reviſed edition of Mr. EDWARDS's History of the Weſt Indies, with a third volume, (completed by its amiable author a ſhort time previous to his death) has lately been publiſhed in London. This third volume contains the intereſting and important hiſtory, with a large Map of the Iſland of St. Domingo, or Hiſpaniola, as alſo that of Tobago; likewiſe a hiſtory of the war in the Weſt Indies from its commencement in 1793, and a tour of Sir William Young through ſeveral of the iſlands. It is accompanied by a highly finiſhed portrait of Mr. Edwards, a hiſtory of his life written by himſelf, and a prefatory advertiſement by Sir WILLIAM YOUNG, Baronet, M. P. F. R. S. &c. under whoſe editorſhip it has been given to the public.

The ſubſcriber, impreſſed with a ſenſe of the great importance a general knowledge of the Hiſtory, civil and commercial, of the Weſt Indies, muſt be to every citizen of America, and of the great celebrity of the above work, propoſes to print it by ſubſcription, and reſpectfully offers the following for public patronage and encouragement.

Propoſals for Printing,

From the London copy, 3 volumes quarto,

THE HISTORY, CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL,

Of the British Colonies in the West Indies.

BY BRYAN EDWARDS, ESQ. F. R. S. A. S.

A political and topographical ſurvey of the ſugar iſlands.

A comprehenſive account of the ancient and preſent inhabitants, agriculture, productions, laws, government, conſtitution and commerce.

An hiſtorical review of the ſlave trade; including obſervations on the character, genius, diſpoſitions, and ſituations of the enſlaved Africans.

An hiſtorical review of St. Domingo, comprehending an account of the former government of the French part of that iſland, its political ſtate, populations, productions, and exports; a narrative of the calamities which have deſolated the iſland ever ſince the year 1789; and a detail of the tranſactions of the Britiſh army in that iſland.

Alſo, a tour through the iſlands of Barbadoes, St. Vincent, Antigua, Tobago and Grenada, by Sir William Young, Baronet, &c. And

A hiſtory of the war in the Weſt Indies from its commencement in 1793, &c. &c.

CONDITIONS.

It will be printed in four volumes, large octavo, on a perfectly new and beautiful type and on a handſome large medium paper, agreeable to a ſpecimen, which may be had at the ſubſcriber's Book Store.

The price to ſubſcribers to be three dollars the volume, in boards; each volume to be paid for on delivery.

With the laſt volume will be given an ATLAS, (without any additional price) containing the following maps, viz.

1 A large general map of the Weſt Indies.
2 Map of Jamaica.
3 Barbadoes.
4 Grenada.
5 St. Vincents.
6 Dominica.
7 St. Chriſtophers.
8 Nevis.
9 Antigua.
10 Virgin iſlands.
11 St. Domingo, or Hiſpaniola.
12 Tobago.

To prevent diſappointment or complaint, it is now premiſed, that on the publication of the ſecond volume the ſubſcription price will be advanced to three dollars and a half the volume, and on the publication of the laſt volume the price will be again enhanced.

With the laſt volume, beſides the Atlas, will be given an elegant engraving of the celebrated author. Alſo a liſt of the ſubſcribers names.

The London copy of the foregoing work in three volumes cannot be ſold in America, in boards, under ſixty dollars.

JAMES HUMPHREYS.

☞ Subſcriptions are received by ſaid Humphreys at his book-ſtore the corner of Second and Walnut ſtreets, and by the principal Bookſellers through the Union.
