No XVI. From Messrs Geale & Dwyer.
Solicitors to Poor Law Board, Ireland.

---

18 Talbot Street. Dublin
23rd June 1874

Dear Sir,

We are very happy to state our full concurrence in the very high Testimonials you hold vouching your efficiency in the discharge of your duties, especially in the matter of Accounts, while in connection with the Poor Law Commission, Ireland.

We can speak as within our own knowledge of the extreme accuracy with which the Union Accounts, always difficult, and conflicting in many cases, were made out upon the occasion of the alteration of some Unions and the charges affecting them