New York, August 8.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. John Ross and Co. merchants at Malta, to merchants in Newburyport, dated May 23.

"We regret to inform that the ship Massachusetts, Buntin, has been detained and brought in here by an English privateer, while proceeding on a voyage from Leghorn to Manfredonia, in ballast. The U. S. agent, (W. Higgins Esq.) has come forward to protect the property, and has lodged a claim in the vice admiralty court for the vessel, &c. and given bail.

"In consequence of the decree of Bonaparte, declaring Great Britain and her colonies, in a state of blockade, the English government, by way of reprisal, have published an order of council, prohibiting the trade between any two ports where the British flag is not permitted to enter—and it is, we believe, upon this legislative order, that the Massachusetts has been detained."

"P. S. June 3. We are sorry to inform, that the Massachusetts has by sentence pronounced this day, been condemned."

A letter, dated June 6, from the same advises the owners to appeal, and they are allowed 12 months for that purpose.

Extract of a letter from capt. John Buntin, of the ship Massachusetts, condemned at Malta, dated June 5.

"This place is full of prize vessels, & coming in daily. There are 18 sail of Americans sent in here, some with valuable cargoes, and it is considered that there is not much short of 600,000 dols worth of American property detained and condemned in this port."

By the ship Pallas, Everet, which arrived last evening in 42 days from Liverpool, the Editor of the Mercantile Advertiser has received a London paper of the 20th of June, and a Liverpool paper of the 25th, (16 days later than our former London advices.)

Captain E. left Liverpool on the 27th June, but did not bring any papers later than the 20th, nor any verbal news from the French and Russian armies.

The following are the only articles of moment our papers contain:

LONDON, June 20.

The first division of the expedition sailed yesterday morning from the Downs for Stralsund. It consisted of the 6th, 7th, and 8th regiments of infantry of the German Legion. The division that has sailed is under the command of gen. Dreckesel. A second embarkation will take place in a day or two.

We have extracted from the foreign papers some interesting intelligence relating to the movements of the Servian and Turkish armies. The affairs of the former are not quite so desperate as they are represented in the Moniteur — The situation of Michelson, and the Russians, we are in hopes will prove not to be worse than that of their allies. The retreat from the Danube was absolutely necessary on his part. The principal Turkish army instead of proceeding to attack him, marched towards Ismail, which was far in the rear of one of his wings. Had they reached that point, the safety of the whole of Michelson's corps would have been endangered.

Admiral Sir Thomas Duckworth attended yesterday, at the admiralty, and had a long conference with the lords.

The marquis of Huntly does not go with the grand expedition—that gallant Nobleman is now appointed on the staff of the army in the Mediterranean, in the room of major general Wauchope, who fell in Egypt. Captain Johnson, of the 42d regiment, we hear, is to go as his lordship's aid-de-camp.

LIVERPOOL, June 15.

The Berbice Packet that arrived on Friday spoke on the 1st June an American from Buenos Ayres for London, who informed, that Buenos Ayres had been retaken by the British, previous to their sailing.

The London Gazette states, that a Supplement would be published on Saturday evening, containing the accounts received by his majesty's government from Europe.

Philadelphia, August 8.

By the Mary, capt. M'Cutchen, we have received New Orleans papers & letters to the 14th July. They contain nothing interesting.

The duel between Mr. Clark and governor Claiborne, (which resulted in the latter being wounded) was occasioned by the governor's calling on Mr. Clark for an explanation of certain expressions made by him in Congress, on the subject of the militia of that territory. Mr. Clark avowed and repeated the expressions, which produced a challenge from the governor. The governor proposed that the meeting should take place in a month's time, but that not suiting Mr. Clark's arrangements, it was had on the Saturday following, at a place called Manchac, and resulted as we have already stated.

A considerable sensation was excited at New Orleans by the following transaction: An officer of one of the gun boats, observing a planter chastising a negro wench in rather a severe manner, landed with a party, forcibly rescued the slave from her master, and committed other acts of violence on his property. The planters (who are opulent & respectable men) in a body were so incensed that they threatened destruction to the offender. A committee, consisting of the hon. D. Clark, M. Bore, &c. was appointed on their behalf to bring the officer to justice.

Savannah, July 28.

The indignant feelings of the citizens of Savannah, at the late dastardly conduct of the British squadron near Hampton, so far from subsiding seem daily to heighten and increase—the more they reflect on the indignity offered the nation, the more they are enraged. Yesterday afternoon we had the pleasure to see the marauders, Whitby, Douglas, and Humphreys (in effigy) marched through the principal streets and squares in this city, in a cart—after which, conveyed to the south common, suspended on a gallows erected for the purpose, and on it burnt to ashes, amidst the acclamations of thousands. On no occasion do we recollect ever to have seen so numerous a collection of people, assembled in one body, in this town.

Alexandria, August 10.

Yesterday morning died suddenly in the 84th year of his age, Gen. Nicholas, long a respectable inhabitant of this city—Gen N. was by birth an Irishman, by profession a patriot soldier, and by taste a man of literature and science—His translation from the French of a work on military tactics, is spoken of with applause, and his military services during the revolution, justly entitled him to the honors of the Cincinnati—After the glorious termination of that war, which secured that independence, for which the nation is again willing to bleed, gen. N. exercised the duty of town major in Philadelphia, from whence he removed to Alexandria. Gen N. is supposed to leave several valuable manuscripts behind him.

Norfolk, Aug. 7.

Captain R. Taylor, who went down to the Triumph on public business, returned this morning; from him we learn that the Triumph in the bay, and the Columbine in the Roads, are the only British ships in our waters. With Captain Taylor, went down the proprietors of some negroes that had got on board the Triumph, where Sir Thomas Hardy detained them until they could be identified and claimed, which being done, they were delivered to their owners.

It is but justice in us to state, that all the gentlemen who have gone down on business with Sir Thomas Hardy, speak in terms of the highest respect for his character, and of the polite attention which he manifests to them.

LAUDABLE.

To the Non-resident Proprietors of Lands situated in the state of Ohio!

NO person possessing common feelings of humanity, can for a moment reflect upon the situation of the Lands of the non resident proprietors in the western country (where they are subject to be sold for taxes) and the sad horrors of redemption) without pitying the miseries of the truly unfortunate or the misfortunes of a family, stripped of their dependence!!! The hungry speculator stands ready to grasp the fortunes of those unfortunate persons, and although he may seize that which does not enrich himself, he may, nevertheless place the property of the non residents in such a situation, that the expence of the redemption would be thought as great a loss to the original proprietor, as the land would be worth—such circumstances as these call aloud for a permanent agent for the non residents in the state of Ohio.

Having been solicited from various quarters to embark in the business of an Agent for non residents, I had determined to offer my services last fall when the recommendatory letter subjoined was signed; but from the business, which, at that period engaged my attention from other quarters, I could only be induced to transact business in that capacity for a few friends. Having disengaged myself from those concerns, I now tender my services to non-resident proprietors of lands situated in the state of Ohio; who, though they are dispersed throughout the United States, have an opportunity now afforded them, of employing an agent to attend their business, whose endeavor it will be to discharge it to their satisfaction.

Those persons who are desirous of employing me as their agent, will address letters to this place by post, designating the business required to be performed; the situation of the land, the number of the warrant, entry, and survey, in whose name the same may have been entered, surveyed or patented, or in whose name it was entered with the Auditor for taxation, and in what district or upon what water course the same may be situated, or as accurate a description as the nature of the case will permit.

Should persons wish their lands redeemed from purchasers, if it belong to heirs it will be necessary to forward proper vouchers to that effect; if they wish their lands sold, divided or disposed of in any manner whatever, proper authority should accompany their letters, and their business will be attended to, upon the following

CONDITIONS:

1st. Paying taxes, taking receipts and transmitting duplicates to my employer, for every tract one dollar, and a commission of two and a half per cent. upon all monies received and paid for taxes.

2d. Selling or redeeming lands, &c. from 5 to 10 per cent. or whatever the expence and trouble attending the business may be reasonably worth.

3d. All letters addressed to me must be post paid. Notes must be enclosed covering the amount of commission and fees as specified, and the amount of taxes which may be nearly ascertained (if the quality of the land is known) from the following rates of taxation imposed by law viz. first rate land 90 cents; second rate 65 cents, and third rate 40 cents, per hundred acres.

4th. All employers will please to designate their address and place of residence.

THOMAS S. HINDE.

Chilicothe, state of Ohio, July 11th, 1807.

☞ The sale of non-residents lands will commence the first Monday in December next.

Chillicothe December 6th, 1806

From our acquaintance with Thomas S. Hinde, and being informed that he offers his services as agent for the proprietors of lands, who are non residents within the state of Ohio, we feel no hesitation in recommending him to our respective friends, acquaintances and all non resident proprietors as a proper person to be employed in that business; and from our acquaintance with him, conceive that he will discharge the duties assigned him, with fidelity, promptitude and dispatch.

Given under our hands at Chillicothe, the date above written.

Chillicothe, July 11th 1807.

From our acquaintance with Thomas S. Hinde, we conceive him well qualified for discharging the duties of an agent for non-resident proprietors of lands in the state of Ohio.
