NOTICE

It has been represented to the Secretary of State, that George Bround, James Carr, John Bolton, John Johnson, James Johnston, John Devis, Thomas Bravo, Matthew Myles, John Grey, Thomas Real, Levy Brown, George Roberts, George or Joseph Nicholls, John Blackwood, John Chapman, Dennis Megavey, Benjn. Dennings, John Veil, John Lindsay, Martin Powers, Isaac Hunter, William Simmons, William Mockhall, Nathaniel M. Warren and William Cammamile, who call themselves Citizens of the United States, have been impressed into the British service, and are now detained for want of documents to prove their Citizenship. The friends of these men are therefore notified that on their transmitting to the Secretary of State, proof of the Citizenship together with a description of the persons of the above named Seamen, measures will be taken to obtain their discharge.

Department of State
August 21st, 1807

The Editor of the National Intelligencer and the Editors who publish the laws of the Union in the Seaports are requested to insert the above three times in their respective Gazettes.

THE PEWS on the lower floor in CHRIST CHURCH, will be sold at public auction on Tuesday the 25th inst. precisely at 12 o'clock. As it is supposed that those pews will command immediate sale, those persons desirous of accommodating their families, will do well to observe punctual attendance.

CONDITIONS.

The pews to be sold to the highest bidder—one half of the purchase money to be paid at the time of sale—the other half when the interior of the church is finished agreeably to the present contracts, at which time should the payments be punctually made, a deed to the property will be given by the vestry. The purchasers to hold the pews in fee as real property, and by him transferable at pleasure, subject nevertheless to such yearly rent as will be designated in the church previous to the commencement of the sale, which ground rent (as the annual funds of the church,) being intended for the support of the clergyman, clerk, sexton, and to keep the church in repair, to be paid quarterly in advance, and in case of delinquency in the payment continuing for one year, the vestry shall sell such pew at public sale, to pay the amount due thereon, the surplus, after deducting the charges and expences of such sale, to be given to the former proprietor.

All persons who have subscribed to the building of the church, and paid such subscription, will on becoming a purchaser of a pew or pews, have the amount deducted from the purchase price. But no part of the subscription money paid, shall be returned to a non-purchaser, nor shall any money be returned to such person who may purchase a pew for less than his first subscription.

By order of the Vestry,
HENRY INGLE,
Register.

One Hundred Dollars Reward,

If taken in this state, or One hundred & fifty if taken out of this state and brought home—

OLIVER, HARRY, LINA, & SARAH, who ran-away from the ſubſcribers living in Madiſon county, on the 13th of June laſt; Oliver, is a ſtout made fellow about 45 years old, about 6 feet high, a little yellow complexioned, round ſhouldered and a little knock-knee'd, ſome few grey hairs to be ſeen about his temples, has a hoarſe voice the appearance of a cold—Harry is a very ſmall fellow, but well made to his height, ſuppoſed to be about 30 years old, black complexioned, a nailor by trade—Lina, a ſmall yellow complexioned wench about 22 years old, the ſaid Lina and Harry were purchaſed out of the eſtate of Mr. Benjamin Grimes, of Prince George county in the year 1800—Sarah, a dark complexioned girl about 15 years old; I think it uſeleſs to mention their cloathing as I have reaſon to believe they have changed their cloathing ſince they left home; I do not doubt but they are provided with a paſs and may attempt to paſs as free people, but examining the paſs and not finding the county ſeal to it, it will prove to be a counterfeit one, and may attempt to get into Maryland or Pennſylvania, or to Norfolk, or to ſome of the weſtern ſtates, or poſſibly they may have been conducted off by ſome white perſon to ſome diſtant part who may make ſale of them. I hereby give a caution to all and forewarn all owners and maſters of veſſels from taking on board or ſecreting ſaid negroes under the ſtricteſt penalty of the law, or the one half of the 150 dollars will be given if ſecured in jail out of the ſtate and 50 dollars if ſecured in jail in this ſtate ſo that we get them again.

PROPOSALS,

By CONRAD, LUCAS & Co.
(late M. and J. Conrad and Co.)
No. 138, Market street,

FOR PUBLISHING
LEWIS AND CLARK'S
TOUR TO THE PACIFIC OCEAN,
THROUGH THE INTERIOR OF THE CONTINENT OF NORTH AMERICA,
Performed by order of the government of the United States, during the years 1804, 1805, and 1806.

THIS work will be prepared by captain Meriwether Lewis, and will be divided into two parts, the whole comprized in three volumes octavo, the firſt containing at leaſt 700 pages, the ſecond and third from four to five hundred each, printed on good paper, and a fair Pica type. The ſeveral volumes in ſucceſſion will be put to preſs at as early periods as the avocations of the author will permit him to prepare them for publication.

PART THE FIRST—IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOLUME FIRST.

Will contain a narrative of the voyage, with a deſcription of ſome of the moſt remarkable places in thoſe hitherto unknown wilds of America, accompanied by a map of good ſize, a large chart of the entrance of the Columbia river, embracing the adjacent country, coaſt and harbors, and embelliſhed with views of two beautiful cataracts of the Miſſouri; the plan, on a large ſcale, of the connected falls of that river, as alſo, of thoſe of the falls, narrows and great rapids of the Columbia, with their ſeveral portages. For the information of future voyagers, there will be added in the ſequel of this volume, ſome obſervations and remarks on the navigation of the Miſſouri and Columbia rivers, pointing out the precautions which muſt neceſſarily be taken, in order to enſure ſucceſs, together with an itinerary of the moſt direct and practicable route acroſs the continent of North America, from the confluence of the Miſſouri and the Miſſiſſippi rivers to the diſcharge of the Columbia into the Pacific Ocean.

VOLUME SECOND.

Whatever properly appertains to geography, embracing a deſcription of the rivers, mountains, climate, ſoil and face of the country; a view of the Indian nations diſtributed over that vaſt region, ſhewing their traditions, habits, manners, cuſtoms, national characters, ſtature, complexions, dreſs, dwellings, arms, and domeſtic utenſils, with many others intereſting particulars in relation to them: alſo, obſervations and reflections on the ſubjects of civilizing, governing and maintaining a friendly intercourſe with thoſe nations. A view of the fur trade of North America, ſetting forth a plan for its extenſion, and ſhewing the immenſe advantages which would accrue to the mercantile intereſts of the United States, by combining the ſame with a direct trade to the Eaſt Indies, through the continent of North America. This volume will be embelliſhed with twenty plates illuſtrative of the dreſs and general appearance of ſuch Indian nations as differ materially from each other; of their habitations; their weapons and habiliments uſed in war; their hunting and fiſhing apparatus; domeſtic utenſils, &c. In an appendix there will alſo be given a diary of the weather kept with great attention throughout the whole of the voyage, ſhewing alſo the daily riſe and fall of the principal water courſes which were navigated in the courſe of the ſame.

PART THE SECOND—IN ONE VOLUME.

This part of the work will be confined excluſively to ſcientific reſearch, and principally to the natural hiſtory of thoſe hitherto unknown regions. It will contain a full diſſertation on ſuch ſubjects as may have fallen within the notice of the author, and which may properly be diſtributed under the heads of Botany, Mineralogy, and Zoology, together with ſome ſtrictures on the origin of Prairies, the cauſe of the muddineſs of the Miſſouri, of volcanic appearances, and other natural phenomena which were met with in the courſe of this intereſting tour. This volume will alſo contain a comparative view of twenty-three vocabularies of diſtinct Indian languages, procured by captains Lewis and Clark, on the voyage, and will be ornamented and embelliſhed with a much greater number of plates than will be beſtowed on the firſt part of the work as is intended that every ſubject of natural hiſtory which is entirely new, and of which there are a conſiderable number, ſhall be accompanied by an appropriate engraving illuſtrative of it.

This diſtribution of the work has been made with a view to the accommodation of every deſcription of readers, and is here offered to the patronage of the public in ſuch ſhape, that all perſons wiſhing to become ſubſcribers, may accommodate themſelves with either of the parts, or the entire work, as it ſhall be moſt convenient to themſelves.

Detached from this work, there will be ublished

LEWIS & CLARK's
MAP of NORTH AMERICA,

From Lon. 0 deg. weſt, to the Pacific Ocean, and between 36 deg. and 52 deg. north Lat. with extenſive marginal notes—dimenſions 5 feet 8 inches by 3 feet 10 inches.

Embracing all their late diſcoveries, and that part of the continent heretofore the leaſt known. This map will be compiled from the beſt maps now extant, as well publiſhed as in manuſcript, from the collective information of the beſt informed travellers through the various portions of that region, and corrected by a ſeries of ſeveral hundred celeſtial obſervations, made by captain Lewis during his late tour

For the convenience of ſubſcribers, theſe ſeveral works will be delivered at the moſt reſpectable commercial towns and at the ſeats of government of the reſpective ſtates and territories within the Union; no advance is required, nor will payment be demanded until ſuch delivery is made.

The price of part the firſt, in two vols. will be Ten dollars, and that of part the ſecond in one volume, Eleven dollars, delivered in boards. Price of the Map, Ten dollars.

☞ Any perſons who may have ſubſcribed for theſe works, to liſts which contain no ſtipulated prices for the ſame, and who may be diſſatisfied with the terms now propoſed, are at liberty to withdraw their names from ſuch liſts, at any time prior to the 1ſt day of December next.

M. LEWIS.
