This land lies on West river, and has thereon an excellent dwelling-house and all necessary out houses, and three small dwelling-houses now occupied by tenants. The farm is very highly improved, and the soil well adapted for the growth of Indian corn and wheat. The situation is remarkable for its convenience to fish, oysters, and wild fowl of every kind.

The terms of sale of the above tract of land are, that the purchaser shall pay one fourth part of the purchase money on the ratification of the sale by the chancellor, giving bond with approved security to pay one third of the balance in three months, one other third in six months, and the residue in nine months from the day of sale, with interest from the said day of sale.

The subscribers will also expose to public sale, on Wednesday the ninth day of February next, at Mr. Rhodes's tavern, in the City of Washington, sundry lots or parcels of ground in the said city, in the following squares, to wit, parts of squares No. 212, 213, 214, 215, 220, 222, 248, 251, 252, 281, 282, 283, 285, 287, 316, 340, 341, 342, 367, 368, 372, 373, being in the whole 113 lots. The lots or parcels of ground offered for sale in the above squares have been [illegible] into convenient building lots, and [illegible] lie to the north-east of the President's square, and some of them [illegible] the said square.

Charles Ross, John Simpson,
John Craig, James Crawford,
William Rask, William Read,
Matthew Pearce, George Plumstead, } Defendants.

THE bill states that the complainant, and two of the defendants, Ross and Simpson, of Pennsylvania were seized and possessed as tenants in common, of three lots in the city of Washington, distinguished by lots No. 1 2 and 3 in square No. 775, that the complainant sold to the said defendants, Ross and Simpson, his interest in the said lots, for the sum of 14130 dollars, and 52 cents. That 3942 dollars, and 58 cents, part of the said purchase money, with interest thereon, and the costs of protesting the notes of the said Ross and Simpson, given for that sum, still remains due and unpaid to the complainant, and that the said Ross and Simpson, have since been declared bankrupts, having, before they were declared bankrupts, executed a deed of conveyance for the whole of the property aforesaid to the defendants, John Craig, James Crawford, William Rask, William Read, Matthew Pearce, and George Plumstead, all of the state of Pennsylvania, that the said deed was not made in consequence of money paid, or any thing advanced by the said last mentioned defendants to the said Ross and Simpson, but in consideration of debts pretended to be due by the said Ross and Simpson to the said last mentioned defendants long before the execution of the deed, from the complainant to the said defendants, Ross and Simpson, and that therefore the claim of the complainant ought to have priority as a lien upon the said lots, being part of the price contracted by the said Ross and Simpson to be paid to the complainant for the purchase of the said lots.

The object of the bill is to make the said lots liable for the debt due by the said Ross and Simpson to the complainant, and to give the complainant's claim a preference.

It is on the complainant's motion ordered, that he procure a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the National Intelligencer, and the Washington Federalist, before the first day of March next ensuing, to the intent that the defendant, and all other persons (if any there be) interested in the premises, may have notice of the complainant's application, and of the object of his said bill, and that the said defendants may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the first day of August next, to shew cause, if any they can, why a decree should not pass as prayed for in, and by said bill.

Doctor FENDALL.

Having just arrived in the City of Washington, takes the liberty to intimate to the Inhabitants of the City of Washington, George-Town, and their vicinage, that he means to exercise his skill in the line of his profession, for a few weeks, and may be spoke with at Mr. Stelles Hotel.

The Doctor's knowledge of the natural history of the human teeth—their adjacent parts, and the disorders to which they are subject, acquired by assiduous attention, unremitted study, and experience of an extensive and successful practice for upwards of twenty eight years, will, he hopes, entitle him to the confidence of all those who wish to employ him.—He fondly flatters himself he has it happily in his power to appeal without fear to such as have been his patients in the states of Maryland, Virginia, &c. for that degree of reputation which his conduct as a dentist has merited, and given him just claim to.—The doctor hopes at least he is considered as entitled to the highest grade among those of his profession in this country.

The Doctor entreats leave to to offer to the public his Colombian anti scorbutic Dentifrice for preserving the teeth, gums, sockets, &c. a dentifrice infinitely superior (he thinks) both in elegance and efficacy, to any thing hitherto used for the teeth and gums. It renders the breath sweet and agreeable, is a powerful anti scorbutic, and free from any corrosive quality whatever.—No family, and especially where there are children, should be without this excellent and valuable preparation, which doctor FENDALL avers to be productive not only of those effects and consequences as a sovereign Dentifrice and remedy for the disorders of the teeth and gums, but will also prevent them.

This admirable dentifrice is still sold (only by Doctor FENDALL) at the moderate price of one dollar a pot with directions.
