ORDINANCE

Of his Danish Majesty, defining what is to be observed by foreign vessels in regard to quarantine regulations.

HIS Majefty the King moft gracioufly ordered by his mandate of the 12th of October laft, that whenever any accounts are received of the exiftence of the yellow fever in the United States of America, or when no particular advice is received to the contrary from the minifter refident there, all American veffels which are not provided with health certificates from the beginning of the month of July until the end of the year are to fubmit to certain quarantine regulations, and even if they are provided with fuch certificates, thefe veffels are ftill prohibited from communicating with the fhore, before they have been vifited by the appointed health phyfician, and if he has the leaft fufpicion, then the veffel muft be dealt with accordingly, in conformity to which, no American veffels during fuch a time fhall be piloted, except having hoifted the green flag.

Which gracious command is hereby publifhed for the regulation of all concerned. Given at the Danifh Royal Chancery, on the 5th of November, 1802.

Extract of an ordinance concerning quarantine regulations, and rules, to be obferved by navigators who touch at the ports or coafts of the royal Danifh dominions, dated at Copenhagen, the 14th November, 1800.

1. Every veffel belonging to our dominions fhall have a green flag on board, to be ufed as prefcribed hereafter.

2. Whenever a veffel arrives from a place where there has been contagion, and in all other cafes of fufpicion, fuch as having been vifited by any veffel from the Barbary coaft, having bales of merchandize on board from fufpected places, and having not undergone a quarantine fpace in any other place, or having had any virulent fickness on board during the voyage, then the green flag fhall be hoifted at the head of the mainmaft, before any communication is had with any perfon whatever from the fhore, and before anchor is caft.

3. The commander of any veffel offending againft thefe orders, fhall pay a fine of 500 rix dollars, (400 dollars) if no dangerous confequence enfue from his mifconduct; but if otherwife he fhall be punifhed with 12 years labor in the fortification—and fhould any malicious intent be proved upon him, he fhall labor in irons during his life. Any veffel having had communication with another veffel that is fufpicious, fhall be fubject to the fame regulations and reftrictions.

7. Should fuch a veffel be under the neceffity of immediate communication with the fhore, he muft hoift her own national colors from the foretop, or under the green flag if fhe has no foremaft.

8 After hoifting the color on the fore top, the fignal for a pilot, the pilot fhall immediately go on board, but not leave the fhip board until the health phyfician has vifited her—and for every day that the pilot is detained, he fhall receive one rix dollar.

9. To prevent unneceffary delays to fuch veffels, as are arrived from places that might be fufpected, (fuch as the Mediterranean or the Weft Indies) but ftill are fecure and free from contagion, not having been at infectious places, nor having any infected merchandize on board, and not having had communication with any veffel which could be fufpected—or, had any one fick or dead during the voyage we do order that for fuch cafes all pilot fhall be provided with blanks as hereafter written, which the captain and mate of fuch veffel fhall fign, viz.

Underfigned N. commander of the fhip, N. arrived from N. and N. W, mate of the faid veffel, declare to their certain knowledge that neither any of the fhips crew, or any other perfon, or any merchandize or thing of whatever kind on board the faid veffel is infected with contagion or dangerous difeafe; and the faid veffel has not been vifited by any cruifers from the African coaft or the Levant, and had none dead or fick with an infectious fever during the voyage, fo help us God and his holy word; and if this depofition be found falfe, we fubject ourfelves to the laws of the land.

10. Blanks of this depofition will be printed in different languages, for the ufe of foreign veffels that may be fubject to the quarantine regulations. As foreign veffels may not always be provided with a green flag, the pilots are bound to have one continually in readinefs to be hoifted in aforementioned cafes. If the green flag has been ufed longer than for one day, the pilot fhall receive two rix dollars for the fame, but the veffel may then keep it.

Any veffel failing from the port of New York for his majefty's dominions from the 1ft of July to the laft of December, muft be provided with (befides the ufual bill of health) a certificate from the Danifh vice-conful. Mr. Hammerkin refident at No. 78, Pearl ftreet where attendance will be given.
