MARYLAND ELECTION.

From a Correspondent in Frederick-Town.
October 6.

"I have the pleasure to inform you that the Republican ticket for members to the House of Delegates of this state has been carried without opposition in this county. The members names are Roger Nelson, David Shriver, Thomas Hawkins, and Henry Kemp."

In Prince George County the republican candidates, M[illegible]s. Bowie, Wood, Carr, and Van Horne, have been elected by a majority of 133 votes.

Montgomery County, Robert P. Magruder, Thomas Davis, Hezekial Veatch, and Elimelech Swearingen.

Calvert County, Walter Mackall, Rezin Estep, William Carcaud, and William Holland.

Baltimore County, N. R. Moore, T. E. Stansbury, A. Lemmon, and Thomas Love.

Mr. John Oakley is appointed Collector of the port of George-Town, in the place of Gen. James M. Lingan, resigned.

We are informed, that Mr. Livingston, his family and suite will embark, in the course of this week, on board the frigate Boston, for France. N. Y. pap.

DIED—On the 18th ult. SETH PAINE, Esq. printer, and one of the Editors of the Charleston City Gazette. He was a native of Dedham, in the state of Massachusetts.

A ship with about 300 passengers from Ireland for Baltimore, has been cast away on the Eastern Shore (Virginia.) We are told that some of the people have been lost, and the rest very sickly. We fear this vessel is the Harriot of Boston, which sailed in company with the Apollo, arrived here a few days ago from Newry with passengers. Norfolk pap.

NEW-YORK, October 5.

By the sch'r Maria, Capt. Sterry, arrived this morning, we have received a Bourdeaux Journal of 1st Fructidor, (about the 19th of Aug.)

An article under the head of Marseilles, mentions that an American frigate had arrived there, which the Genoese had taken for an English ship—together with two brigantines in ballast. We do not understand the word taken [prise] unless it means captured, in which case the mistake would be not a little singular.

The paper we have received, contains not a syllable of news from Egypt—but mentions distressing ravages committed by insects in the neighborhood of Paris, and great destruction in different parts of France by tempests, hail and inundations.—The same paper has some remarks on Lord Nelson's attacks at Boulogne, representing that his object had been defeated—but no facts worthy of notice, are stated.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.

By a vessel which arrived here last evening, from Norfolk, we are informed, that just as they sailed on Friday last, a small black vessel arrived there, which they were told was a Tripolitan vessel, a prize to one of our ships now cruising in the Mediterranean.

SALSBURY, Sept. 10.

Counterfeit Bank notes.

On Tuesday last, a young man who says his name is——Kerus, was apprehended and committed to jail for endeavoring to pass a counterfeit 50 dollar bank note, of the United States bank. On his being searched there were found in his saddle bags a number more, to the amount of nineteen hundred and fifty dollars. They are badly executed, and the paper is very dark. Previous to his being apprehended, he said he was going to meet his father at Salem N. C. (who perhaps has got as great a number as himself) and from what could be understood by his papers, it is very probable that he was going that route. The people of this and other states, ought to be on their guard, as it is expected there is a number of other such villains employed on the same business.

NORFOLK, October 1.

By the Kingston (Jamaica) papers received by different arrivals yesterday, we learn that all the British naval force on the West-India station, are ordered immediately for England.

Extract of a letter from Norfolk to a gentleman in Philadelphia, dated 26th ult.

"After going so well through the summer until this late period, we had flattered ourselves that our town would have continued healthy; but this day the mayor of the city, John Cowper, Esq. has found himself under the painful necessity of announcing to the public, that a malignant fever is now raging with some considerable violence; as yet it has been confined to strangers, of which we have had an uncommon influx this year. It has only been within three or four days that the fever assumed a serious aspect, and we do hope that the approaching cool weather, which we have a right to expect, will arrest its progress. This is an uncommon thing with us."

Deaths from Monday the 28th, at 12 o'clock, to Wednesday the 30th, at the same hour, Eighteen.

JOHN COWPER, Mayor.
Norfolk, Sept. 30.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 24.

The consul of Denmark at Rotterdam has issued information, June 31st, to all captains and others concerned in vessels wearing the Danish flag, that he has received orders to give them the same papers to all harbors, places, or lands, none excepted, upon the same footing and form as they were before the embargo in England of the Danish ships. He declares also, that he has received information of a peace between Denmark and Tunis.

On Wednesday the 14th inst.

Will be sold, a number of beds, beddings, tables, chairs, bar and kitchen furniture, at the house of Messrs. Conrad and M'Munn. The sale to commence at 9 o'clock, and continue till all is sold.

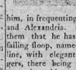
ALEXANDRIA & NORFOLK

PACKET.



THE subscriber respectfully returns thanks to his friends and the public in general, for the encouragement and patronage with which they have long honored him, in frequenting his packet between Norfolk and Alexandria. He is now happy to inform them that he has established a handsome, fast sailing sloop, named the GEORGE, in the same line, with elegant accommodations for passengers, there being four private rooms, besides a large airy cabin, and to avoid the inconvenience and disagreeable sensations which some persons experience from paint, the cabin is finished with mahogany.

Any ladies or gentlemen honoring him with their company shall have every attention paid to them, and no exertions shall be wanting on his part to give perfect satisfaction.

Now lying at the wharf of Rickets, Newton and Co. to whom, or to the captain on board, apply for freight or passage.
