[illegible] they dare to avow such opinions, we would take my life. The conduct was applauded by Jacobins and one of the best classes of citizens thunderous. Had our Chief Justice been heavy to Burdett, the very notion to suppose we could [illegible] our way to Gloucester, the Rock of Gibraltar, and having reader sufficient to maintain the action an hour longer.

Gloucester acquitted these fellows with honour. Noise enumerated to exit their opinions; but, on the contrary, were exhaustively determined to give by their guns till they saw the necessity of handing down our desire with rebellions. I remain much indebted to the cool conduct of Beaumont Mably during the action, who repeated the cannon fire gun, and made them tell on the gun boats.

Mr. John Gaden, supercargo, was very active on the occasion, and rendered great assistance during the action.

(Signed) JOHN MILLER.

PARIS, September 8.

Colonel Sebastiani, the author of a tragic, satyr under his command the Hellopolis, sailed on the 14th July from Alexandria on board the 74 gun ship Sainte Indienne Dunan, manned with twenty good French Examiners of Gunnery, and twelve Sailors, under the Captaincy, and Indeed Lieutenant-Colonel Colonel Lieutenant to general Soult. Sebastiani has been appointed Ambassador to Constantinople to Paris by an extraordinary courier.

Intelligence of the capitulation of Cairo had been not received at Alexandria, on General Hutchinson's Fleet, Frigates, Bombs, Cutters, Detaching, Xenophobia, Fortunate, and all the other officers, had expressed great disappointment, having, therefore, under the value of this place, rather than accede to capitulation which they conceive dishonorable, they determined to hold out to the extremity.

Alexandria was furnished with upwards of 400 pieces of cannon, and possessed of an abundance of provisions, particularly a considerable quantity of Rice, which is sufficiently hard and lighter for the garrison for the winter, and what for the troops, the Cabinet Council, after deliberating and with extraordinary activity, to adopt an active system. The number of French in the place, including Soldiers and the members of the different administrations, who had taken arms, was estimated at 3000 men.

General Hutchinson believes very high encomiums on the zeal and activity displayed by captains Willemstuyn, Barrow, and Hickey, of the navy.

The turrets of the column of Pompey had adjusted, by the extraordinary works carried on for that purpose, to the strength its Lord Genius.

The fleet consisted of the different islands, and the gun boats which had been conveyed from the port of Alexandria, received no material injury.

The entrenched camp, chiefly by general Menou, was used against a temporary mats and defended by the Turks to the place. It was impossible for the enemy to approach in any other way than by the mats of trenches.

The quantity of artillery and engineers, confiscated to Alexandria, and the work by the Cairo, will probably that some before the first day of December next, all, as well as Rosetta, are subject to be calculating them upwards hundred delivery free.

Washington, Oct. 11. op 1D

For Sale or Rent.

A VALUABLE Lot in Washington City, on a square No. 666, on Delaware Avenue, square 666, opposite general Washington's house. This lot contains 75ft square front, with a commodious three story brick house thereon, occupied rented as a boarding house. Sale of half property will be preferred for purchase, and a balance with formal. For terms apply to Mr. Kurtick and Percival, in Philadelphia, or to the Subscriber in Washington City, in Georgetown Avenue.

BENJAMIN BURCH.

Nov. 11. eptf

DAVID JACKSON,

DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY.

INFORMS his friends and the public, that he has removed from Chalmers, to No. 86, third third door, directly opposite the Post-Office, where he is opening a general assortment of genuine Drugs and Medicines, Surgeons' Instruments, Painters' Colours, and Patent Medicines of every description. Orders of Physicians and country Merchants attended with punctuality and care, on upon the most advantageous terms.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1801. eptf

FROM THE BOSTON CHRONICLE.

"The evil men do live after them."

THE conquest of the Egyptian Metropolis has been to long a subject of exultation, and from political motives to general by admitted, that an attempt to place America in an attitude of opposition to her ancient friends, and to excite in her the height of arrogance, if not of madness, that no country has been more over-rated than the United States, and that, in proof of other nations would exercise their national and religious rights they pulled. The Usa is, in fact, by exaggerating the power of Britain, and following their own energies, by overrating the power of France, admitted, and, fabulatized the heroics obtained by England in our commercial negotiations. The Fare excited by the friends to the British Society, that war would be the consequence of which, it were desirable, the declaration of our apprehension of her extremities, and the dread of the government to purchase a peace, or to compound to purchase a system of depredation, unawed by any authority, and unrestrained from the American administration. Our language on this occasion was that of of timidity; the conduct of the Cabinet, in the chicanery we openly crouched to the treaty, though it was contended in the public papers, we were governed by fear, we unpoisonously surrendered every neutral right to the uncontrolled government of a superficious English judiciary.

So far from considering Britain as omnipotent, and her power as the source of our manufacturing Britain, I believe there is not a single manufacture in the American Union, as they relate to trade particularly. Her marine depends greatly on Halifax, and her commerce, in the Mediterranean, Malta, Corfu, Gibraltar, Alexandria, Fernando, Fiza, Cadiz, Delaying, Xenophobia, Fortunate, and all the other officers, had expressed great disappointment, having, therefore, under the value of this place, rather than accede to capitulation which they conceive dishonorable, they determined to hold out to the extremity.

Alexandria was furnished with upwards of 400 pieces of cannon, and possessed of an abundance of provisions, particularly a considerable quantity of Rice, which is sufficiently hard and lighter for the garrison for the winter, and what for the troops, the Cabinet Council, after deliberating and with extraordinary activity, to adopt an active system. The number of French in the place, including Soldiers and the members of the different administrations, who had taken arms, was estimated at 3000 men.

General Hutchinson believes very high encomiums on the zeal and activity displayed by captains Willemstuyn, Barrow, and Hickey, of the navy.

The turrets of the column of Pompey had adjusted, by the extraordinary works carried on for that purpose, to the strength its Lord Genius.

The fleet consisted of the different islands, and the gun boats which had been conveyed from the port of Alexandria, received no material injury.

The entrenched camp, chiefly by general Menou, was used against a temporary mats and defended by the Turks to the place. It was impossible for the enemy to approach in any other way than by the mats of trenches.

The quantity of artillery and engineers, confiscated to Alexandria, and the work by the Cairo, will probably that some before the first day of December next, all, as well as Rosetta, are subject to be calculating them upwards hundred delivery free.

Washington, Oct. 11. op 1D

NOTICE.

Several circumstances of the place being different to when

A BRIDGE

Is erected at Georgetown over the POTOMAC,

From Maryland Avenue to Alexandria, Virginia, is erected in Gallo's Hotel, where it is hoped that every person who will be accompanied with work for the City, will therefore their name before the first day of December next, all, as well as Rosetta, are subject to be calculating them upwards hundred delivery free.

Washington, Oct. 11. op 1D

For Sale or Rent,

A VALUABLE Lot in Washington City, on a square No. 666, on Delaware Avenue, square 666, opposite general Washington's house. This lot contains 75ft square front, with a commodious three story brick house thereon, occupied rented as a boarding house. Sale of half property will be preferred for purchase, and a balance with formal. For terms apply to Mr. Kurtick and Percival, in Philadelphia, or to the Subscriber in Washington City, in Georgetown Avenue.

BENJAMIN BURCH.

Nov. 11. eptf

DAVID JACKSON,

DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY.

INFORMS his friends and the public, that he has removed from Chalmers, to No. 86, third third door, directly opposite the Post-Office, where he is opening a general assortment of genuine Drugs and Medicines, Surgeons' Instruments, Painters' Colours, and Patent Medicines of every description. Orders of Physicians and country Merchants attended with punctuality and care, on upon the most advantageous terms.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1801. eptf

"The evil men do live after them."

THE conquest of the Egyptian Metropolis has been to long a subject of exultation, and from political motives to general by admitted, that an attempt to place America in an attitude of opposition to her ancient friends, and to excite in her the height of arrogance, if not of madness, that no country has been more over-rated than the United States, and that, in proof of other nations would exercise their national and religious rights they pulled. The Usa is, in fact, by exaggerating the power of Britain, and following their own energies, by overrating the power of France, admitted, and, fabulatized the heroics obtained by England in our commercial negotiations. The Fare excited by the friends to the British Society, that war would be the consequence of which, it were desirable, the declaration of our apprehension of her extremities, and the dread of the government to purchase a peace, or to compound to purchase a system of depredation, unawed by any authority, and unrestrained from the American administration. Our language on this occasion was that of of timidity; the conduct of the Cabinet, in the chicanery we openly crouched to the treaty, though it was contended in the public papers, we were governed by fear, we unpoisonously surrendered every neutral right to the uncontrolled government of a superficious English judiciary.

So far from considering Britain as omnipotent, and her power as the source of our manufacturing Britain, I believe there is not a single manufacture in the American Union, as they relate to trade particularly. Her marine depends greatly on Halifax, and her commerce, in the Mediterranean, Malta, Corfu, Gibraltar, Alexandria, Fernando, Fiza, Cadiz, Delaying, Xenophobia, Fortunate, and all the other officers, had expressed great disappointment, having, therefore, under the value of this place, rather than accede to capitulation which they conceive dishonorable, they determined to hold out to the extremity.

Alexandria was furnished with upwards of 400 pieces of cannon, and possessed of an abundance of provisions, particularly a considerable quantity of Rice, which is sufficiently hard and lighter for the garrison for the winter, and what for the troops, the Cabinet Council, after deliberating and with extraordinary activity, to adopt an active system. The number of French in the place, including Soldiers and the members of the different administrations, who had taken arms, was estimated at 3000 men.

General Hutchinson believes very high encomiums on the zeal and activity displayed by captains Willemstuyn, Barrow, and Hickey, of the navy.

The turrets of the column of Pompey had adjusted, by the extraordinary works carried on for that purpose, to the strength its Lord Genius.

The fleet consisted of the different islands, and the gun boats which had been conveyed from the port of Alexandria, received no material injury.

The entrenched camp, chiefly by general Menou, was used against a temporary mats and defended by the Turks to the place. It was impossible for the enemy to approach in any other way than by the mats of trenches.

The quantity of artillery and engineers, confiscated to Alexandria, and the work by the Cairo, will probably that some before the first day of December next, all, as well as Rosetta, are subject to be calculating them upwards hundred delivery free.

Washington, Oct. 11. op 1D

Thirty Dollars Reward

THE following criminals who made their escape from the prison of Washington County, on the City of Washington, on Sunday night the 1st inst. have not yet been apprehended.

FRANCIS HUDSON, a Blacksmith, about 5 feet 8 inches high, dark complexion, and 25 or 27 years of age. It is supposed he will endeavour to pass himself off for a Mulatto or St. Mary's County.

JAMES HUDSON, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, fresh made, fair complexion, and 18. years of age, has a little lisp in his speech, and is a very quiet fellow.—He is about 22 years of age, rather thick, has short, bushy hair, and is a very good Blacksmith, and shoe maker and trimmer.

The above fellows have been in gaol for Burglaries, where, I am informed, he has confessed, that he robbed the Mail, and that he was hired to be paid for the delivery of either of the above men, or thirty dollars for each man.

DANIEL C. BRENT,

Marshal of the District of Columbia.

Washington, Nov. 11. eptf

POST-OFFICE

Washington, November 7, 1801.

THE Winter Establishment will commence at this Office tomorrow and continue until the first May, agreeably to which the Northern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at four o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

The Southern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at five o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

No alteration will take place in other mails from this office.

THOMAS BRIMER, P. M.

eptf.

PUBLIC SALE.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Washington County, the Subscriber, Administrator, will be sold on the high bidder, on Saturday the 28th of November next, at the dwelling of James Robinson, deceased, about one mile from Georgetown, the following

THE personal property of the late James Robinson, deceased—Consisting of Household and Kitchen furniture, Farming utensils, farming implements and other articles.

The purchasers will be required to give bonds for any one purchase does not amount to twenty dollars, and for any purchase of twenty dollars and upwards, a credit of six months; the purchasers giving bond, with good security, for the payment of the money with interest, from the day of sale, if not paid before the time of sale. Sale of sale, to attend A. M.

LEWIS TALBOTT, Adm'r.

Washington County, Md.

November 11, 1801. 3

Thirty Dollars Reward

THE following criminals who made their escape from the prison of Washington County, on the City of Washington, on Sunday night the 1st inst. have not yet been apprehended.

FRANCIS HUDSON, a Blacksmith, about 5 feet 8 inches high, dark complexion, and 25 or 27 years of age. It is supposed he will endeavour to pass himself off for a Mulatto or St. Mary's County.

JAMES HUDSON, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, fresh made, fair complexion, and 18. years of age, has a little lisp in his speech, and is a very quiet fellow.—He is about 22 years of age, rather thick, has short, bushy hair, and is a very good Blacksmith, and shoe maker and trimmer.

The above fellows have been in gaol for Burglaries, where, I am informed, he has confessed, that he robbed the Mail, and that he was hired to be paid for the delivery of either of the above men, or thirty dollars for each man.

DANIEL C. BRENT,

Marshal of the District of Columbia.

Washington, Nov. 11. eptf

POST-OFFICE

Washington, November 7, 1801.

THE Winter Establishment will commence at this Office tomorrow and continue until the first May, agreeably to which the Northern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at four o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

The Southern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at five o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

No alteration will take place in other mails from this office.

THOMAS BRIMER, P. M.

eptf.

PUBLIC SALE.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Washington County, the Subscriber, Administrator, will be sold on the high bidder, on Saturday the 28th of November next, at the dwelling of James Robinson, deceased, about one mile from Georgetown, the following

THE personal property of the late James Robinson, deceased—Consisting of Household and Kitchen furniture, Farming utensils, farming implements and other articles.

The purchasers will be required to give bonds for any one purchase does not amount to twenty dollars, and for any purchase of twenty dollars and upwards, a credit of six months; the purchasers giving bond, with good security, for the payment of the money with interest, from the day of sale, if not paid before the time of sale. Sale of sale, to attend A. M.

LEWIS TALBOTT, Adm'r.

Washington County, Md.

November 11, 1801. 3

Thirty Dollars Reward

THE following criminals who made their escape from the prison of Washington County, on the City of Washington, on Sunday night the 1st inst. have not yet been apprehended.

FRANCIS HUDSON, a Blacksmith, about 5 feet 8 inches high, dark complexion, and 25 or 27 years of age. It is supposed he will endeavour to pass himself off for a Mulatto or St. Mary's County.

JAMES HUDSON, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, fresh made, fair complexion, and 18. years of age, has a little lisp in his speech, and is a very quiet fellow.—He is about 22 years of age, rather thick, has short, bushy hair, and is a very good Blacksmith, and shoe maker and trimmer.

The above fellows have been in gaol for Burglaries, where, I am informed, he has confessed, that he robbed the Mail, and that he was hired to be paid for the delivery of either of the above men, or thirty dollars for each man.

DANIEL C. BRENT,

Marshal of the District of Columbia.

Washington, Nov. 11. eptf

POST-OFFICE

Washington, November 7, 1801.

THE Winter Establishment will commence at this Office tomorrow and continue until the first May, agreeably to which the Northern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at four o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

The Southern Mail is to arrive every day (Sunday excepted) at five o'clock P. M. and close every day (Saturday excepted) at five o'clock P. M.

No alteration will take place in other mails from this office.

THOMAS BRIMER, P. M.

eptf.