WASHINGTON CITY.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1801.

It is with much fatisfaction the Editor informs his fellow-citizens, that for feveral days paft the new Market-Houfe, between the Capitol and the Prefident's Houfe, has been tolerably well fupplied with provifions, and numeroufly attended by purchafers. It is to be hoped that the citizens will make it their duty generally to attend. The fuccefs of the plan altogether depends upon this. Nor can any doubt be entertained of the chearful co-operation of the citizens, when the importance of the object to be attained, and the univerfal defire to accomplifh it, are confidered.

On the 10th inftant, James Munroe, was again elected governor of Virginia, for the enfuing year. He loft but three votes.

Supreme Court of the United States.

Thurfday, December 10, 1801.

Thomas Swann, Efq. of the Diftrict of Columbia, and John R. Smith, Efq. of Pennfylvania, admitted as Counfellors of this Court.

Resler vs. Sheehee.

This was a writ of error from the Alexandria county court. The cafe in the court below was an action inftituted by Shukee v. Rufhee, for a malicious profecution. The defendant fuffered a judgment by default—and afterwards he moved to fet afide the office judgment, and offered a plea of juftification, which was rejected by the court below as inadmiffible under the act of Affembly of Virginia which requires (V. Laws, p. 85.) a defendant to plead to iffue immediately. This rejection by the court was the chief error relied upon the counfel for the plaintiff in error.

The court affirmed the judgment of the court of Alexandria county.

The fhip Huron has been fold at New-York, on account of the United States, for 10,650 dollars. The purchafers were Meffrs. Bedient and Hubbell.

The Revenue Cutter Governor Gilman, was fold lately at Portfmouth for 3,140 dollars. Captain Keyron Welch was the purchafer.

A law has paffed both Houfes of the Legiflature of Maryland, to alter the furnames of Mary Smock, Robert Smock, John Smock, and Anne Smock, of Baltimore, to that of Nefbit.

By the "Journal du Commerce," of the 9th October, we learn, that on the preceding day, Mr. Pinckney, minifter of the United States to Spain, was prefented to the Firft Conful, at the audience of ambaffadors, being introduced by citizen Talleyrand, minifter for foreign affairs.

VENTRILOQUIST.

We underftand that the celebrated European Ventriloquift arrived at Bofton the 29th ult. from Scotland, in the brig Juftinian. The fingular powers of perfons organifed, has been a theme of converfation for a lon[illegible] ong the learned and the inquifitive [illegible] poffeffes, by nature, the ability of making any object appear to fpeak, and of producing anfwers from the clofets, &c. of a room. We hear of but two Ventriloquifts, fince the woman of Endor, who is defcribed as having a familiar fpirit. [Palladium.

The Moniteur announces that France is reducing her marine. The crews of the fhips of war are to be reduced to the peace eftablifhment, and "the advanced guard," the light flotilla, deftined to form a divifion in the invafion of England, from Boulogne and Dunkirk, is difarming.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Cincinnatus, to a gentleman in New Jersey, dated Cincinnatus, Sept. 7th, 1801.

One object of great importance before me is a mine (in all appearance inexhauftible) of the coincons, or horn filver ore. Five others and myfelf are now in poffeffion of the fee, and immediate means will be afforded to carry all the neceffary works into complete affect—From various effays I have made of this ore, I have reafon to belive it is the richeft mine ever discovered. I have affay'd fpecimens of this ore taken up at fifteen miles apart, and know it to be one and the fame vein, and the refult of each was equally rich. I think we may calculate upon about 100 ounces of fine filver to every hundred weight of ore. The mine lies about 140 miles up the Ohio from this place, but not in the weftern territory, by which pofition we fhall fave the 5th part referved by the Federal government of mines of the precious metals worked in its dependencies—I Shall embrace the firft opportunity to fend fpecimens of the ore to the Mint, the Philofophical Society and Peale's Mufeum.

TOUSSAINT LOUVERTURE,

Commander in Chief of the army of St. Domingo, to Citizen Bonaparte, First Conful of the French republic.

Cape Francois, July 16, 1801.

Citizen Conful,

The minifter of the marine, in the account which he gave you of the political fituation of this colony, which I communicated to him in my difpatches fent by the corvette d'Enfant Prodigue, returning to France, muft have fubmitted to you my proclamation of the 5th of February laft, for the convocation of a Central Affembly, which, the moment when the union of the Spanifh part to the French part of the ifland was effected, might form of St. Domingo only one and the fame country, fubject to the fame government, and fix its deftiny by wife laws, fuited to localities and the manners of the inhabitants. I have now the fatisfaction of announcing to you that the laft hand has been put to this work, and that the refult has been a conftitution, which promifes happinefs to the inhabitants of this colony, fo long unfortunate. I take the earlieft opportunity of fending it to you, for your approbation and the fanction of my government. For this purpofe, I have difpatched to you, citizen Vincent, director-general of fortifications at St. Domingo, to whom I entruft this valuable depofit.

The central affembly having requefted me, in confequence of the want of laws, and the neceffity of making their empire fucceed that of anarchy, to caufe my conftitution to be provifionally put in execution, as being likely to promote its future welfare. I have complied with their defires, and this conftitution has been received by every clafs of citizens with tranfports of joy, which will not fail of being revived when it fhall be invefted with the fanction of government.

Health and profound refpect.
