THE following valuable Tracts of land, which will be difpofed of on reafonable terms, for either cafh, property in the city of Wafhington, good fecurity, or a certain number of negroes, as may beft fuit the purchafer.

A tract of 300 acres on Second creek, near the Natchez.

150 acres on the river Amite.

400 acres on the river Tangipao, oppofite to New Orleans. This tract is particularly valuable, on account of its eligible fituation, fertility of foil, and abundant fupply of fifh, which abound in the river, and the neighbouring lake. A poft road paffes this tract from New Orleans to the Natchez ——The abov three tracts are within the line of the United States.

A Tract of 201 acres on the river Miffiffippi, Baton rouge fettlement.

500 acres back land	do.	do.
300 acres	do.	do.
1000 acres	do.	do.
500 acres	do.	do.

Thofe Lands are adjoining Baton Rouge, being the firft high ground that commands the river, where the Britifh eftablifhed a Fort and a ftrong garrifon, which was conquered by Don Galvez and the garrifon made prifoners of war, in the year 1779, and this fettlement is now one of the moft promifing on the river, within the Spanifh Boundary.

A tract of 500 acres near point Couper, a flourifhing fettlement. This Property is alfo within the Spanifh boundary.

A tract of 7000 acres in Bedford county, on the branches of Otter river, the branches of Reed and Hunting Creeks, branches of James river.

A tract of 4000 acres in Pittfylvania, on Staunton river. Thofe two tracts juft mentioned are in the ftate of Virginia.

Two tracts of 1200 acres each, in Fayette, near Bourbon county, diftrict of Kentucky, on the waters of Main Licking.

Two valuable lots in the town of Portfmouth. Thofe tracts are adjoining the ground now occupied by government as a navy yard; they are a growing property, worthy attention.

All the tracts on or near the Miffiffippi are well calculated for the raifing of cotton, indigo, hemp, flax, indian corn, oats, &c. the quality being generally ftrong, and highly productive. Their range for horned cattle, horfes, hogs, &c. in all feafons, is equal to any on the continent.

Thofe who wifh to purchafe may gain further information by applying to James Duncan, efq. Carlifle, Pennfylvania; to Dr. Robinfon at the city of Wafhington, or to the Subfcriber in the city of Philadelphia.——Letters, poft paid, will be attended to.
