AN ACT

Requiring annual licences to be taken out by Ordinary or Tavern Keepers, Retailers and Hawkers or Pedlars.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the First and Second chambers of the City Council of Washington, That no tavern or ordinary shall be kept in the city of Washington without an annual licence therefor be first obtained; to continue in force for one year from the date of the same, and to be annually thereafter renewed, for which licence the person obtaining it, shall pay the sum of sixteen dollars for the use of the city.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That every person applying for a Tavern or Ordinary Licence, shall produce to the Mayor good and satisfactory testimonials that he or she hath suitable and proper accommodations for travellers or guests, with at least four good feather beds and bedding, and good stabling for four horses, over and above what is necessary for his or her own use, or the use of his or her own family. And before the licence be granted the Mayor shall require and receive from the person so applying his or her bond with two citizens approved of by the Mayor as sureties in the penal sum of two hundred and fifty dollars each, conditioned for the keeping of such accommodations bedding and stabling for persons travelling or guests, and for keeping an orderly, quiet and peaceable house.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all retailers of wines or spirituous liquors, other than tavern keepers, who shall sell the same in smaller quantities than ten gallons, shall take out an annual licence therefor, and for which licence they shall pay for the use of the city the sum of eight dollars, which licence shall authorise the selling of any such quantity not less than one pint; and provided the same is not drank in the house or store of the person having such licence.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That every person so obtaining a retail licence, shall give bond with two citizens approved of by the Mayor as sureties, each in the penal sum of one hundred dollars conditioned for not selling wine or spirituous liquors in less quantities than one pint or suffering the same to be drank in the house where sold.

Sec. 5. And be it it enacted, That for selling liquors in any house other than a Tavern, in smaller quantities than a pint, there shall be an annual licence first obtained and for which there shall be paid twenty dollars for the use of the City, and the person so applying for licence, shall produce to the Mayor the certificate of at least six inhabitants, householders of the same ward, of the good character of the person so applying, and that they have known him or her at least six months preceding such application, on which a licence shall be granted for one year, and the person to whom such licence shall be granted shall give bond with two citizens approved by the Mayor as sureties in the penal sum of fifty dollars each conditioned for the quiet orderly and peaceable keeping of such house, and that the keeper thereof will not during the time for which such licence shall be granted, suffer any person or persons to play any game of cards, dice, or other hazard for money therein, and that he or she will not suffer any apprentice or slave to purchase and drink any wine or spirituous liquors in his or her house, and that the person keeping such house shall not on Sunday sell or suffer to be drank in his or her house any wine or spirituous liquors.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Register on the direction of the Mayor, to make out and record such licences and affix the city seal thereto, and whenever he receives the bond hereby required and a certificate from the Treasurer, that the money is paid, he shall sign the licence and deliver it to the person; for which duties he shall be entitled to receive from the person to whom the licence is granted a fee of sixty six cents.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That no person shall be required to take out any licence under this act, who may already have obtained one until such licence shall have expired.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That for every infraction of the provisions of this act there be paid by the person committing the same, or his sureties, the sum of twenty dollars.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That persons usually denominated hawkers and pedlars carrying goods, wares, and merchandizes from place to place in the city, shall take out annual licence therefor, for which shall be paid thirty five dollars each licence; and the said hawkers and pedlars shall be bound to exhibit to any officer of the corporation at all times when thereto required or demanded the licence obtained as aforesaid.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That in case of the absence of the Mayor from the city, or in case of his indisposition, it shall be the duty of the Register to grant licences upon applications being made, and the requisites of this act being complied with by the persons applying.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That so much of former acts as come within the purview of this act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.
