Traveller's Hall.

THE subscriber tenders his sincere thanks to his friends for the very liberal encouragement which they have bestowed on him. He will finish one of his new rooms in a few weeks, which will be large enough to dine near 200 persons at a time, and will shortly after have the remainder of his additional building completed, which will give him a front of near 100 feet, in the most agreeable ness, of the town, and in the centre of business being on the highest part of the public square. He has on hand, and has contracted for a constant supply of the best wines, and foreign spirituous liquors imported, and country provisions, stable forage, foreign & state newspapers—and has secured a quantity of liquors sufficient for the use of his table and bar during the season. He assures his friends, and that respectable part of the public who have patronized him that there shall be nothing wanting which his time or purse will command, to render the TRAVELLER'S HALL a house of entertainment for genteel guests only, equal to any in America.

District of Columbia, Washington county, to wit:

UPON the petition of JEREMIAH CONNER, an insolvent debtor confined in jail in the county of Washington, in the district of Columbia praying relief under the act of Congress, entitled, "An act for the relief of insolvent debtors within the district of Columbia," notice is hereby given to the creditors of said Jeremiah Conner, that on the 29th day of April, at 9 o'clock, a. m. at the court room in the Capitol the oath of an insolvent debtor will be administered to the said Jeremiah Conner, and a trustee appointed agreeably to the said act, unless sufficient cause then and there be shewn to the contrary.

It is ordered that this notice be published twice in the National Intelligencer and Washington Federalist before that day.

By order of the hon. Wm. Cranch, esquire, assistant judge of the Circuit court of the district of Columbia.

U. FORREST, Ck.

THE Public have seen of late, my petition for the benefit of the Insolvent act. In order to a right understanding of the cause of my being reduced to that very disagreeable dilemma, I would barely state, that, being in the year 1801, special bail, together with a person who has since left America, for a man residing a considerable distance from this city, and who has been about two years in jail; executions were obtained against me at this court; that intending to leave the district, I some time since, applied to the gentleman who had the management of the suits, and offered him my bond, payable in annual instalments, for any sum I could raise from my industry in three or four years, if farther process in the business would be stopped; he said, he had it not in his power to accede to my proposition.

It is well known to some of the most respectable gentlemen in the district, that I had both legal and friendly council, from men who would not advise me to any thing dishonest, or dishonorable, to take the benefit of the insolvent act immediately, which I would not consent to—but executions being soon after served upon me, and not having money to pay the debt, I was under the necessity of availing myself of the provisions of a law I never expected or intended to shelter myself under.

Except in the case of the person for whom I was bail, I had but two creditors—one, my particular and old friend, to whom upon a final settlement, there might be due between 30 and 40 dollars—the other, a person who in the opinion of my lawyer and myself, could hardly be considered as such; but as I had some doubts upon the subject, he was returned a creditor.

My assets and the debts due to me, were considerably more than what was due to my creditors; yet it was beyond my power to avoid what has befallen me. If my creditors were more numerous than they are, I would not hesitate to say, that notwithstanding my having got clear by the Insolvent Law I would as soon as able, discharge every debt due on my own account.

It is with much reluctance I would at any time trouble the public with my affairs; but I owed it to my character, to give this plain statement of facts.

JEREMIAH CONNER.

IRON WORKS FOR SALE.

IN Wythe county state of Virginia, on Cripple Creek about 15 miles from the Great Kanhawa and 40 miles from the north fork of Holston which affords a tolerable safe navigation to a prodigious scope of the western country, where perhaps iron is in greater demand than any other quarter of the United States.

Cripple Creek affords a sufficiency of water for both forge and furnace, being fed by bold never failing springs. The furnace and all the buildings have been commenced within 4 or 5 years—they consist of dwelling houses, kitchens, and a store house; also, a large and convenient stable—the forge has not long been completed. It is supposed to be the best built forge in Virginia, being out of choice timber felled at proper seasons and executed by a first rate forge carpenter from Pennsylvania. It works three fires and two hammers, is sixty feet long and fifty wide, well covered with joint shingles. There are between 7 and 800 acres of land attached to these works, some of it of excellent soil, and any quantity may be procured within 6 or 8 miles for from 1 to 8 dollars per acre.—The ore banks appear to be inexhaustible, lying within one mile of the furnace and good roads. From one of the banks the ore may be conveyed by water within 10 steps of the furnace, with the inconsiderable expence of 40 or 50 dollars.

The quality of the iron is acknowledged by those who have used it to be equal to any. It is particularly sought for by lock makers, saddle tree platers, cutlers, &c.

The demand for iron in that country is far beyond what is made, and is selling from 40 to 50l. per ton. I have no hesitation to say, contracts on not a very long credit can be had for almost any quantity yearly, as from that quarter a considerable portion of the western country is supplied.

As it is supposed a purchase of this magnitude would not be made, without a view of the property by those inclined to purchase, it is deemed unnecessary to give a further description.

Letters addressed to me at Abington, Virginia, will be duly attended to.

I will also sell my

SALT WORKS

On Holston in Washington county Virginia, which is now rented at 10,000 Dolls. a year. I have adjoining to it between 5 and 6 000 acres of land well covered with timber, a considerable proportion of which in point of fertility is equal to any land whatever, and will afford 3 or 400 acres of meadow, nearly 100 being now in good timothy. The buildings which are extensive are in a good state of preservation.
