A SECTION OF ENGLAND'S NEW ARMY IN TRAINING AS RESERVES BEHIND THE FIGHTING LINES IN FRANCE.

(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

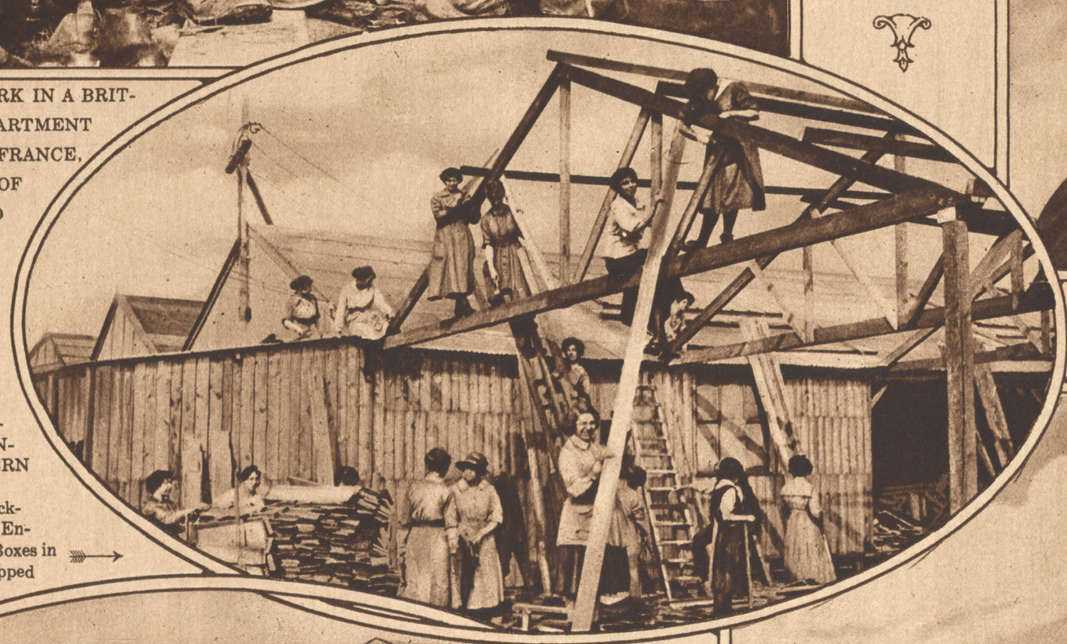
FRENCH GIRLS AT WORK IN A BRITISH SHOE REPAIR DEPARTMENT BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE, WERE 30,000 PAIRS OF SHOES ARE RESTORED TO USEFULNESS EVERY WEEK.

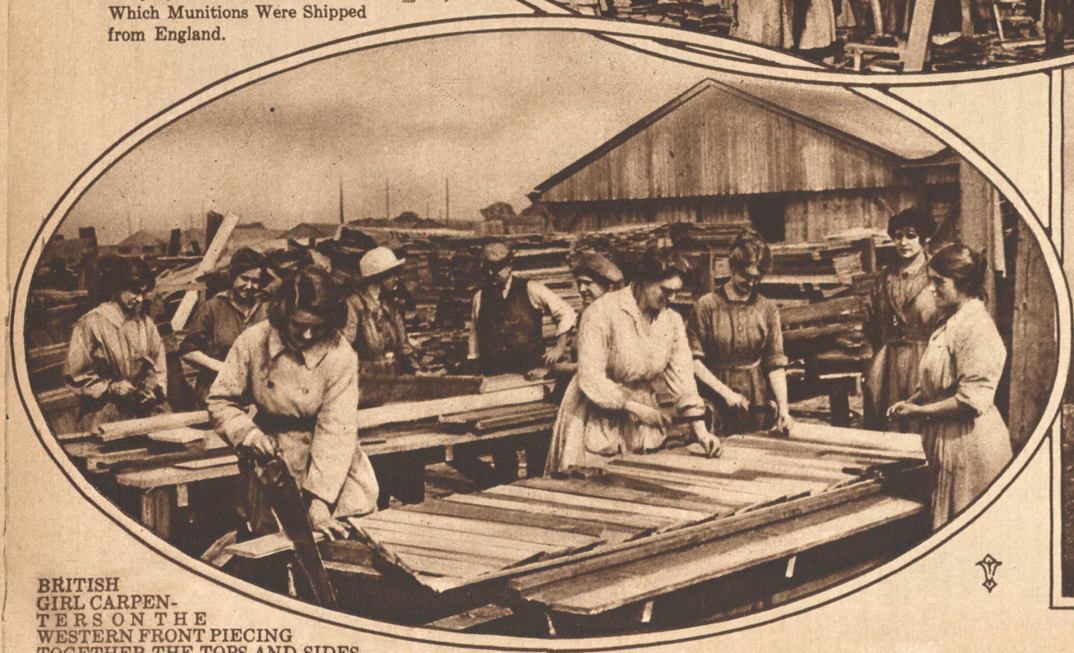
MISS SUSAN RUTH MILLER, Daughter of Mrs. Myra Kingman Miller of New York and Long Beach, Cal., Whose Engagement to Lieutenant Carl Erling Hoard, U. S. R., Has Been Announced.

FANNY BRICE, IN "WHY WORRY," AT THE HARRIS THEATRE.

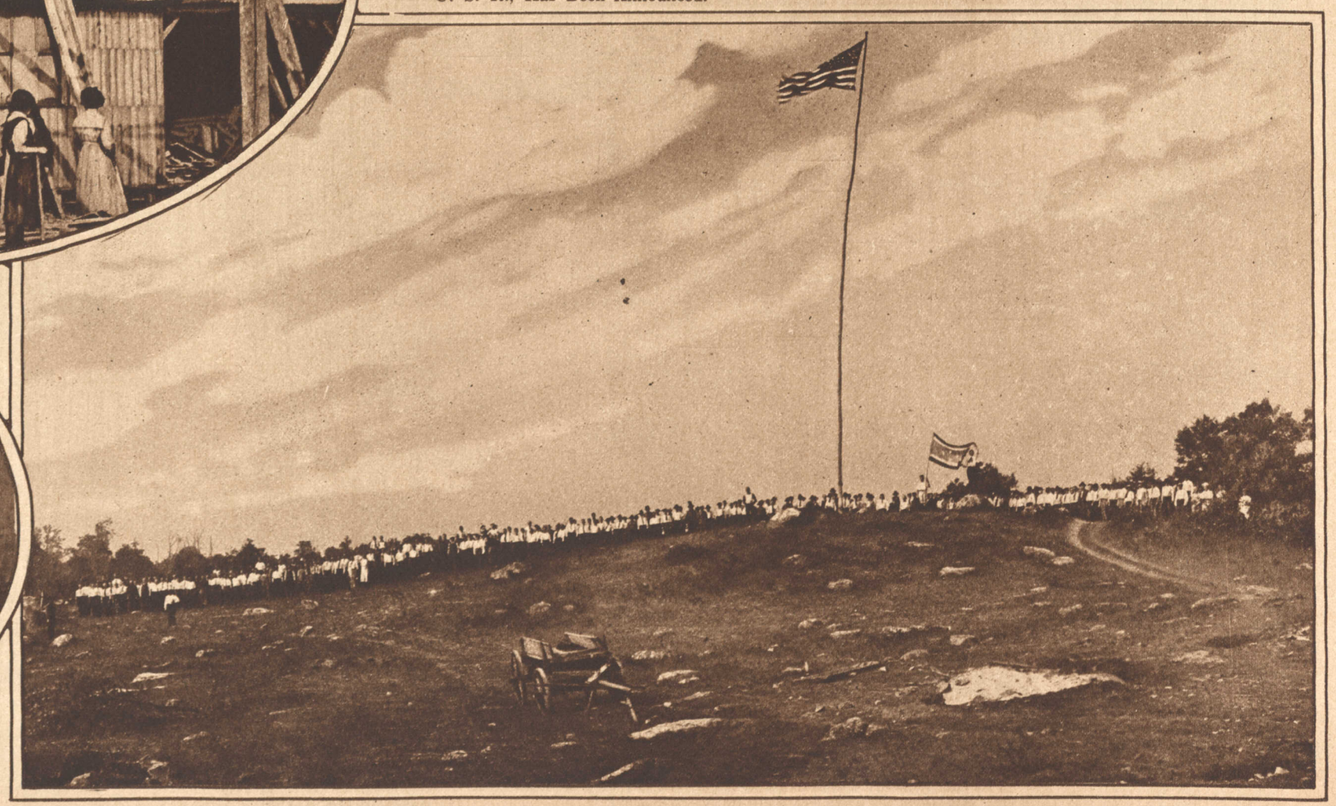


BRITISH GIRLS OF THE QUARTERMASTER'S ARMY AUXILIARY CORPS EMPLOYED AS CARPENTERS ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

The Buildings in the Background Were Constructed Entirely by These Girls from Boxes in Which Munitions Were Shipped from England.



BRITISH GIRL CARPENTERS ON THE WESTERN FRONT PIECING TOGETHER THE TOPS AND SIDES OF OLD BOXES INTO WEATHER-BOARDING FOR THE HUTS THEY ARE BUILDING.



AMERICAN CZECHOSLOVAKS IN TRAINING AT THE COUNTRY HOME OF GUTZON BORGLUM, SCULPTOR, NEAR STAMFORD, CONN.

From a Photograph Taken Just Before They Sailed for France. (© Publishers Photo Service.)