portion to the share, produced another fatal effect. It interposed between the tradesmen and bank a class of men who, possessing a certain number of shares, procured at 6 cent. loans which they resold always at a much higher rate more or less advantageous, according to circumstances and often exclusively dear. Thence resulted the high price of shares in the bank, sought after, valued, purchased on the footing of the annual amount of the dividend, augmented on account of too many bills having been issued and of the increase of the accumulated reserve; a deceitful and little to be wished for increase, a means of stock-jobbing and consequently of ruin, an occasion of contempt for the prudent father of a family and a fatal attraction for the imprudent and hazardous man. Thence also resulted the exorbitant rate at which the interest was kept up of which the bank was no longer the regulator, because the bearer of true commercial bills was not admitted to discount them there since the bank received only him who had an interest to depress commercial effects, in order to obtain with more advantage, at a higher discount and thus the tradesman was forced to receive the law of this new kind of capitalist.

FOR SALE.

PURSUANT to a decree of the high court of Chancery, will be sold on the premises to the highest bidder, on the 1st day of August next, if fair, if not on the next fair day, on a credit of one and two years, the purchaser giving bond on interest with such security as the Chancellor may approve of—that valuable plantation where the late NICHOLAS BLACKLOCK formerly lived in Charles county; the Land includes all the improvements at Trey, it contains 314 acres—the improvements are valuable and the land fertile. A further description is thought unnecessary, presuming that no person will purchase before he views the property. Possession will be given on the first day of January next and a deed given conveying the estate of N. Blacklock in said land when it is fully paid for, by

CHASE'S TRIAL.

This day is Published
By SAMUEL H. SMITH.

TRIAL
OF
SAMUEL CHASE,

AN ASSOCIATE JUSTICE of the Supreme Court o the United States,
IMPEACHED
By the House of Representatives, for HIGH CRIMES AND MISDEMEANORS, before the Senate o the United States.

Taken in short hand,
By SAMUEL H. SMITH & THOMAS LLOYD.

In Two large Octavo Volumes—in Boards, price—to subscribers four dollars and a half—and to non subscribers five dollars.

A much greater delay has been incurred in the publication of this trial than the Editor contemplated. He has, however, the satisfaction of saying that no effort has been omitted by him to give it to the public at an earlier period. The delay has arisen from the revision of the speeches of the Managers and Counsel. The publication might long since have been made in a less perfect dress; but it was deemed highly desirable that in a case, which, independently of its own importance, might be a precedent in future times, to sacrifice time rather than precision. The work now appears before the public, with the expectation of the Editor that it will be considered as meriting the character of an impartial, comprehensive and faithful statement of facts. All the speeches have been revised, and inserted at length, in connection with whatever else formed a part of the trial.

Editors of other prints will confer a benefit by inserting this advertisement a few times in their papers.

A BARGAIN.

THE subscriber offers for sale the farm he now occupies, containing near 300 acres with or without the stock thereon.

It is distant from the cities of Georgetown and Washington, about five miles, and well known as a healthy situation. There is much fine fruit thereon, and abounds with springs, affording as good water as in the United States, a considerable proportion of the land has been in clover, and from thirty to forty acres fit for the scythe the ensuing summer. It is now in a very improving state, being altogether clear of broom sedge, and from 40 to 50 acres ploughed and prepared for a spring crop, and from 30 to 40 acres well set with wheat and rye—some part of the land is calculated for tobacco; and plaster of paris answers well with it all. The dwelling house and other improvements may, with small repairs, be rendered very comfortable—From its vicinity to two growing cities many advantages result in supplying the markets. A purchaser may calculate on a good bargain, particularly if an early application be made. Some part of the purchase money will be required in cash or approved negotiable paper; the remainder rendered easy—or negroes received in payment. The subscriber or William Beatty residing on the farm will shew it when required, and the terms made known by application to Mr. John Thompson, George Town, or DR. WM. THORNTON Washington.

Isaac Polock,

Fruit Hill,

Some Lands calculated for the culture of cotton, indian corn and small grain, situated on a navigable river in the healthiest part of the state of Georgia, will also be sold on reasonable terms or exchanged for negroes

WASHINGTON CITY.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 16.

The U.S. Brig Argus, Captain Hull, arrived on Sunday in 39 days from Gibraltar—She brings no news of importance.

Yesterday the President of the U. S. attended by the heads of departments, visited the Argus, which was dressed on the occasion. A salute was fired on their going on board, and another on their departure. The state of this vessel indicated the utmost order and cleanliness, which is further evinced by her not having a sick man on board, although directly from the Mediterranean.

We understood that appearances in the Mediterranean are perfectly pacific towards the U. S. who are invariably treated with respect on all public occasions. As an evidence of this, it is said that commodore Rodgers was admitted by the Dey of Algiers to his presence with a sword by his side, a mark of respect hitherto unpaid to the representative of any foreign power.

The following gentlemen were on Monday last elected trustees of the Washington Academy by the City Council on their part.—The remaining six are to be chosen by the contributors on Monday next.

Thomas Jefferson,
William Cranch,
Nicholas King,
Abraham Bradley,
William Brent,
Frederick May,
Samuel Hanson of Samuel.

Augusta,

The legislature of this state at their late session, have elected his excellency governor Milledge, Senator to Congress, and D. B. Mitchell, esq. major general of the first division of militia; the vacancies having been occasioned by death of general Jackson.

New-York, July 12.

By the brig Hercules from Bordeaux, and the ship Brutus from Nantes, a regular file of Paris papers to the 25th of May is received at the office of the Mercantile Advertiser. No political event of consequence having transpired, these papers contain very little intelligence worth translating. We learn from them, however, that all the difficulties which had taken place between France and Austria, relative to the occupation of the mouths of the Cattaro have been removed by the court of Petersburgh having ordered them to be delivered up to the French conformable to the treaty of Presburgh.

The Venetian provinces have sent an extraordinary deputation to Paris, to take the oath of allegiance to the Emperor, and to bear testimony to the sentiments which animate the inhabitants of that country.

According to advices from Hamburgh, of May 11th, the Swedes had begun the blockade of the Oder; and the English were going to close the mouths of the Vistula, the Pugel, and the Muncl. A body of English troops was expected at Stralsund under command of Gen. Moore, who is to act under the orders of the king of Sweden.

An ambassador from the Ottoman Porte arrived at Paris on the 19th of May.

No change had taken place in the constitution or form of government of the Batavian republic.

MORE GREAT BARGAINS.

WE will recommence on Monday the 28th July next, at the usual place (Holtzman's tavern) offering to the highest bidder, the remainder of the property unsold at our last sale, viz improved and unimproved lots in this town and the city of Washington—several small tracts of land on the waters of Rock Creek, within 3 or 4 miles of the two places, two thirds of which are well clothed with timber, the land generally good and on one of them a never failing stream sufficient to run several saw mills. A tract of 12 and a half acres on Potomac between the Little Falls and the Canal, valuable for water works and stone quarries. 167 and 1 2 acres on the north side of the city, on which there are three elegant eminences, commanding a full view of the city, George Town, Alexandria, Potomac, Eastern Branch and surrounding country. A disputed claim for 81 1-2 acres within the city. Also various lands in Maryland. Good titles will be given, free of every incumbrance, for all the property except the disputed 81 1 2 acres. Terms of sale, credit in proportion to the amount of purchase money, to be made known on the day of sale. Negotiable notes with good endorsers including interest will be required. Debts due from our father's estate or from either of us, will be received in payment.

Young Ladies Academy.

MRS. REAGAN respectfully informs the inhabitants of Washington city and its vicinity, that she has taken that commodious house on F. Street situated between Capt. James Hoban and Josiah W. King, where she has this day opened an Academy, for the instruction of young ladies in the following branches of female education, viz. Tamboring, embroidery, open work, queens work, marking, all kinds of plain sowing, filigree, painting, wax work, French, music, dancing, reading and writing. Mrs. Reagan is sensible of the responsibility of her situation, & will endeavour by an assiduous attention to the morals, manners, and literary improvements of her pupils to merit the approbation of their parents and the patronage of the public. Young ladies can be accommodated with boarding, &c.

June Court 1806—In Chancery.

Thomas Law, vs. Richard Gridley.

THE Report of Danial C. Brent the trustee formerly appointed in this cause having been returned and sworn to and filed and the proceeding therein approved—it is therefore decreed and ordered that the said report be ratified and confirmed unless cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 1st Monday of October next provided a copy of this order be published for three successive weeks before that time in the Washington Federalist and the National Intelligencer.

The report states that the mortgaged property therein mentioned was sold for the sum of four hundred and thirty-five dollars.

By order,
