UNITED STATES, District of Columbia, county of Washington, to wit:
In Chancery, March 28th, 1809.
John P. Van Ness—Complainant, against
William H Dorsey—Defendant.

THE Bill states, that in or about the year 1805, the defendant William H. Dorsey, being or pretending to be seized in fee, or of some other good and sufficient estate of inheritance of, in, and to certain pieces or parcels of ground, lying, and being in the city of Washington, which said grounds were leased out upon ground rent for ninety-nine years renewable forever—that the said defendant being indebted to the complainant John P. Van Ness in the sum of four thousand nine hundred and seventy-four dollars thirty-four cents, payable on the 10th day of January 1809, with interest from that day if not then paid—for the purpose of securing to the said complainant his said debt and interest, did, by deed of indenture bearing date on or about the 19th day of April 1805, mortgage to the said complainant the following pieces or parcels of ground, lying and being in the city of Washington aforesaid, which said grounds are leased out upon ground rent for ninety-nine years, renewable forever, that is to say, that piece of ground then under lease to Cornelius McClan; that piece of ground then under lease to Edward Frithy, that piece of ground then under lease to George Blount, that piece of ground then leased to Thomas Herty; that piece of ground then leased to Alexr. Joncherez; that piece of ground then leased to Peter Murray; that piece of ground then leased to William Woodward, also, another piece then leased to said Woodward and that piece then leased to John McGowan;—That the said defendant hath failed to pay to the said complainant the said sum of money or any part thereof, or to any other person on his account on the said 10th day of January 1809, according to the proviso contained in the said deed of indenture or mortgage, or at any other time; and that the whole sum, principal and interest is now due and owing to the said complainant.

The object of the Bill is to foreclose the said Wm. H. Dorsey from all right of redemption in and to the said pieces of ground.

The bill further states that the said Wm. H. Dorsey hath removed from the district of Columbia, and is not within the reach of the process of this court.

It is therefore ordered that the said complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the National Intelligencer and Washington Federalist at least once in each of eight successive weeks before the first Monday of June next, to the intent that the said Wm. H. Dorsey may have notice of this application and of the object of this bill, and be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the said 1st Monday of June next, to shew cause if any he can, why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

By order of the hon. Wm. Cranch, Esq. chief judge of the circuit court of the district of Columbia.

WM. BRENT, Clk.
