The maison de Manuel

Vredius Tabulae XIX p 407—"Il espousa MARINE Manuel, fille de Jean Manuel de la Cerde, comte de Sintra & de Leonor d'Avelaneda, autres disent de Marie de Cordona & autres encor font ceste Dame de Falais fille de Jean Manuel Seigneur de Belmont & d'Aldonse de la Vega Ce seigneur Espagnol estoit descendu de l'Infant Dom Manuel, fils de Ferdinand III du nom Roy de Castille." This was St. Ferd. III King of Castile & Leon 1200-52 & later Juan Manuel duc de Peñafiel abt. 1325 is found. But nothing appears to give any final proof of either connection. The Cordovas comtes de Figueroa use in their quartered coat "Manuel & Leon." The Manuel family bore for armes: of Castile "Manuel & Leon" of Spain comtes d'Atalaya "Portugal & Manuel" of Belmont "Manuel & Leon." (A) Jean Manuel bore Manuel: Gules, a winged hand holding a sword in pale or, & Leon: Argent, a lion gules—[see Royal chart fig. 5]. It is very apparent that this may be "Jean-Manuel bâtard de Portugal & the founder de la maison MANUEL" his half-brother Alfonse V king of Portugal lived 1432-81—Jean was the 3d child of Edouard I King of Portugal, died 1438—his birth must have been prior to that date, but after 1434 this coincides with the date of the m. 1488 of Marie Manuel, his dau. ?—Her brother was Jean Manuel de la Cerda seigneur de Belmonte & de Campos, and a Chevalier de la Toison d'Or. His birth and position must have been higher than usual to have secured for him this Honor. [10-A Philippe (Delannoy) of Toucoing] (after 1511) married; 2d Françoise de Barbençon dame de Beauvois d. 1559 daughter of Jean de Barbançon seigneur de Cany they had 1—Baudouin de Lannoy born after 1512 died 11 October 1559 seigneur de Tourcoing & de Beauvois Chevalier de la TOISON d'OR in 1546 (CCXXXIII) Gouverneur de Tournais [Governor of Tournais] (Tournay) he married: Adrienne de
