

CIRCULAR

New York, Nov.-Dec., 1898, & Jan.-Feb., 1899.

The purpose of this letter is to inform those interested that our Delano Genealogy is ready to be sent for, as explained. It covers 800 years of family history and 1,400 years of our Royal descent from Guelph Prince of the Scyri (also ancestor to the Queen of England and other Reigning houses), with Royal charts from Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, and hundreds of Emperors, Kings, Princes, Dukes, Comtes, Knights of the Golden Fleece, the Garter, etc. It contains photographs, coat-armors, maps, charts, views of buildings, reproductions of paintings, etc. Hundreds of allied families—their coats-of-arms, origin, etc. The house of Delano de Lannoy is intermarried with the noblest families of Holland, Germany, France, Italy, and New England. Among which are the old Puritan, Huguenot, and Knickerbocker families. And is also a list of the descendants of Franchimont, Lannoy, Delanoy and Delano. 1. Jean De La Noy (to Eng., time of Eliz.) 2. Philippe De La Noye (to Plymouth, 1621). 3. Abraham and Peter De La Noy (fr. Holl. to New Amsterdam). 4. Felix de Lannoy (fr. Belgium, 1850). The rest showing the intimate and active part this great European family has performed in history—from Jean de Franchimont, who had a following of 3,000 knights retainers and men-at-arms; Hue de Lannoy, Governor of Holland; Charles de Lannoy, Viceroy of Naples, who captured the King of France; Marie de Lannoy (Mother of Philippe), patron of the Mayflower Pilgrims and the Puritans of Leiden; General Joseph G. Swift, first graduate of West Point, 1802; Hon. Columbus Delano, Secretary of the Interior; and Ulysses Simpson Grant. All these of our blood may be read of therein. The amount asked for is $5.00. The edition is strictly limited to some 400 copies. Kindly send your subscription by Registered Letter, Check or Post Office Money Order. All such to be sent to Mr. Thomas E. Delano, 115 Fulton Street, Box 2996, New York, N. Y., (acting as Treasurer).

(Pub. Committee.) Mortimer Delano, Pursuivant-of-Arms, (Of 104 West 120th Street, New York.) Maj. Joel Andrew Delano, Genealogist, (Of Grove, Mich.) Prof. Edward Chandler Delano, Additional Genealogist, (Of Sodus Centre, N. Y.) (The committee hereby cordially thank all contributors and subscribers who have aided us in many ways)

(Southampton L. I. June 26-1899)