NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER,
AND
WASHINGTON ADVERTISER.

Vol. III. WASHINGTON CITY, PRINTED BY SAMUEL HARRISON SMITH, PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE. No. CCCCLXI.

FIVE DOLLS. PER ANN. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8th, 1803. PAID IN ADVANCE

NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

The following are the protest of Mr. Jarvis, and the answers given to his letters, inserted in our last.

COPY OF PROTEST.

By this public protest be it known unto all whom it may concern, that on the 10th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and three, before me, John Hermann Langdale, notary public, residing and practising in the last mentioned Hamburgh, by legal authority duly admitted and sworn, personally came and appeared before me John M. Forbes, consul of the United States of America, near the first mentioned city of Hamburgh, who did then and there set forth and formally declare to me, in the manner that on the 8th day of June instant, at about three of the clock in the afternoon, as he apprehended, he was informed, privately believed, the American schooner Allen, of Gloucester, captain Charles Boston, being in the harbour of Cuxhaven, and within the territorial limits of the city of Hamburgh, was forcibly entered by sundry armed officers and foreigners, whose names are to the appellant unknown, belonging to the British majesty's frigate Amethyst, capt. Campbell, and a division of the said British schooner Alfred, commanded by Brown, being a citizen of the United States of America, and as the appellant verily believes a native of the town of Gloucester in the state of Massachusetts, was unpreffaldonted the said schooner Allen, and the said ship Alfred, by the aforesaid armed and forcibly carried to sea in the service of his Britannic majesty's frigate Amethyst, capt. Campbell, and in defiance of the laws of nations, and in violation of the right of peaceable neutrals and hospitality of the extensive dominion of the free imperial city of Hamburgh; Whereforeto, the said John M. Forbes, protested to proceed, and I the said notary at his repeated instance and request, do hereby testify, that by force of the said armed and forcibly carried to sea in the service of his Britannic majesty's frigate Amethyst, capt. Campbell, and in defiance of the laws of nations, and in violation of the right of peaceable neutrals and hospitality of the extensive dominion of the free imperial city of Hamburgh; Wherefore, the said John M. Forbes, protested to proceed, and I the said notary at his repeated instance and request, do hereby testify, that by force of the said armed officers and foreigners, belonging to the said frigate Amethyst, and the said ship Alfred, commanded by Brown, a citizen of the United States of America, and as the appellant verily believes, a native of the town of Gloucester in the state of Massachusetts, was unpreffaldonted the said schooner Allen, and the said ship Alfred, by force of the aforesaid armed and forcibly carried to sea in the service of his Britannic majesty's frigate Amethyst, capt. Campbell, and in defiance of the laws of nations, and in violation of the right of peaceable neutrals and hospitality of the extensive dominion of the free imperial city of Hamburgh; Whereforeto, the said John M. Forbes, protested to proceed, and I the said notary at his repeated instance and request, do hereby testify, that by force of the said armed officers and foreigners, belonging to the said frigate Amethyst, and the said ship Alfred, commanded by Brown, a citizen of the United States of America, and as the appellant verily believes, a native of the town of Gloucester in the state of Massachusetts, was unpreffaldonted the said schooner Allen, and the said ship Alfred, by force of the aforesaid armed and forcibly carried to sea in the service of his Britannic majesty's frigate Amethyst, capt. Campbell, and in defiance of the laws of nations, and in violation of the right of peaceable neutrals and hospitality of the extensive dominion of the free imperial city of Hamburgh; Wherefore