TO BE SOLD

TO the highest bidder, on the 2nd Tuesday in September, if fair, if not the next fair day, (sale to continue until all is sold) at my quarter in Cornwallis's neck, 50 horned cattle, the same number of sheep and hogs, several mares, colts, fillies, plough nags, work oxen, &c. among the above are two fine thorough bred mares with a colt at their side thorough bred. Also a lease of the plantation which is well known, and forms a peninsula. This land must yield a handsome profit to the purchaser, for obvious reasons; has a market at the door for every article, add to this the markets of Dumfries, Colchester, Alexandria, the City and G.orgetown. Its full length lies on the Potomac to the mouth of Mattawoman creek, which extends around the plantation so far that it may be inclosed with a short line from river to creek. There are a number of fishing landings, fish and wild fowl in their season in high perfection, the land is valuable for making tobacco, grazing, and uncommonly favorable for raising every kind of stock. It is presumed the purchaser would wish to see the premises; on which I shall be the day preceding the sale, will give every necessary information, and the terms will be accommodating to all reasonable purchasers; but will make a considerable deduction for cash or tobacco in hand. should not the above lease be disposed of, it will be rented for and during its continuance, on giving bond and good security for punctual payment of the rent.

Valuable property FOR SALE,

I WILL sell on reasonable terms the farm on which I reside, containing about 1000 acres of valuable land. The soil is well adapted to wheat, corn and tobacco, and the cedar and locust which puts up in every uncultivated spot will afford a never failing supply of wood and timber. The farm is handsomely situated on the Patuxent river, and commands an elegant and extensive view. Its form is nearly a square, one side of which is bounded by the river, and another by Battle creek which is deep and navigable for the largest vessels employed in the Bay trade, so that the farm may be enclosed at half the labor and expense that would be required by one of equal size that is not so fortunately situated. It is very convenient to the Baltimore, Norfolk and George Town markets, to either of which places the produce may be safely and expeditiously conveyed in vessels that can lye along side the beach for the purpose of receiving it. The improvements are a new two story dwelling house, not quite finished, containing four commodious rooms and a large passage through the house on each floor and a cellar beneath of the same form and dimensions—An excellent granary, corn house, stables, &c.—The river and creek abound in the different seasons with fish, oysters and wild fowl of the best quality.

The terms of sale may be known by application to

PROPOSALS

BY JOHN DIXON,

For Printing by Subscription, a Periodical Work, to be entitled the VIRGINIA MAGAZINE, OR, Monthly Miscellany.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work to contain 63 pages (Octavo) monthly, of selected miscellaneous prose, and of original prose also, whenever the exertions of the Editor, and his Assistant, and the communications of correspondents can supply it.

Of improvements and experiments in Agriculture, with which the Editor hopes to be furnished by the Farmers, &c. of this and other states, or to select himself.

Of Debates in Congress.

Of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence.

Of Selected Poetry, and Original too, whenever good can be procured and not otherwise.

Of Marriages and Deaths.

Of Prices Current.

II. The work to be printed on good paper, and with a neat type.

III. The price to Subscribers, to be Five Dollars per annum, one half to be paid on the delivery of the first number, and the balance at the expiration of six months after.

IV. The work to be put to press as soon as 300 Subscribers are obtained.

PROSPECTUS.

THE utility and rational amusement derivable from well conducted Magazines, probably will not be controverted. They afford an asylum for many fugitive essays, that might otherwise meet with a more rigorous fate than they merit. The brevity of their articles and their longer duration of existence than that of some other periodical publications, hold out an inducement to that indolence, too frequently the attendant of genius, and to those pressed by the cares of business, to devote an hour or two to their own entertainment, and the pleasure and instruction of the community, while the greater variety of subjects they comprise, gives them a decided superiority over several other works. —For they contain something to suit the Palate of every one, and may be particularly pleasing and instructive to those who have not the inclination or the leisure to peruse more prolix writings. There are few countries, where a love of reading prevails and science is regarded, in which Magazines are not numerous and well received. And yet the Subscriber thinks he is correct in saying that not one is published in the respectable state of Virginia. He designs to publish one, principally of a Literary complection, provided he obtains adequate support, in which case he flatters himself, that his exertions will prove fully satisfactory to his patrons. For any reluctance to subscribe, arising from a non compliance of any persons who may have issued proposals, similar to the foregoing, the subscriber has it only in his power to say that he pledges his honor to comply with his engagement, if supported by the public.

This lottery has been authorised by the legislature of Virginia, for the laudable purposes of erecting a seminary of learning in or near the metropolis of this state. With this view, it is contemplated to raise 20,000 dolls. and 2,300 dolls. in addition, for defraying the expences attendant on drawing the lottery. Citizens of the first respectability have been selected as trustees, and they have pledged themselves to use their utmost exertions to carry it into effect. The scheme has the advantage of giving to each adventurer a chance for some very large prizes, whilst the proportion of prizes to blanks, is so great, as to invite the friends of the intended institution to partake in the lottery, with very little risque of their becoming losers. The treasurer of the state is to be appointed to receive the money for the tickets as they are sold, and to pay the amount of the prizes to the fortunate adventurers. It is believed that the above considerations will induce rapid sale of tickets, and the drawing will commence as soon as a sufficient number shall be sold to authorise it——which it is believed will be on the second Monday in December next.
