No. 138, Market street,

FOR PUBLISHING

LEWIS AND CLARK'S
TOUR TO THE PACIFIC OCEAN,

THROUGH THE INTERIOR OF THE CONTINENT OF NORTH AMERICA,

Performed by order of the government of the United States, during the years 1804, 1805, and 1806.

THIS work will be prepared by captain MERIWETHER LEWIS, and will be divided into two parts, the whole comprized in three volumes octavo, the firft containing at leaft 700 pages, the fecond and third from four to five hundred each, printed on good paper, and a fair Pica type. The feveral volumes in fucceffion will be put to prefs at as early periods as the avocations of the author will permit him to prepare them for publication.

PART THE FIRST—IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOLUME FIRST.

WILL contain a narrative of the voyage, with a defcription of fome of the moft remarkable places in thofe hitherto unknown wilds of America, accompanied by a map of good fize, a large chart of the entrance of the Columbia river, embracing the adjacent country, coaft and harbors, and embellifhed with views of two beautiful cataracts of the Miffouri; the plan, on a large fcale, of the connected falls of that river, as alfo, of thofe of the falls, narrows and great rapids of the Columbia, with their feveral portages. For the information of future voyagers, there will be added in the fequel of this volume, fome obfervations and remarks on the navigation of the Miffouri and Columbia rivers, pointing out the precautions which muft neceffarily be taken, in order to enfure fuccefs, together with an itinerary of the moft direct and practicable route acrofs the continent of North America, from the confluence of the Miffouri and the Miffiffippi rivers to the difcharge of the Columbia into the Pacific Ocean.

VOLUME SECOND.

Whatever properly appertains to geography, embracing a defcription of the rivers, mountains, climate, foil and face of the country; a view of the Indian nations diftributed over that vaft region, fhewing their traditions, habits, manners, cuftoms, national characters, ftature, complexions, drefs, dwellings, arms, and domeftic utenfils, with many others interefting particulars in relation to them; alfo, obfervations and reflections on the fubjects of civilizing, governing and maintaining a friendly intercourfe with thofe nations. A view of the fur trade of North America, fetting forth a plan for its extenfion, and fhewing the immenfe advantages which would accrue to the mercantile interefts of the United States, by combining the fame with a direct trade to the Eaft Indies, through the continent of North America. This volume will be embellifhed with twenty plates illuftrative of the drefs and general appearance of fuch Indian nations as differ materially from each other; of their habitations; their weapons and habiliments ufed in war; their hunting and fifhing apparatus; domeftic utenfils, &c. In an appendix there will alfo be given a diary of the weather kept with great attention throughout the whole of the voyage, fhewing alfo the daily rife and fall of the principal water courfes which were navigated in the courfe of the fame.

PART THE SECOND—IN ONE VOLUME.

This part of the work will be confined exclufively to fcientific refearch, and principally to the natural hiftory of thofe hitherto unknown regions. It will contain a full differtation on fuch fubjects as may have fallen within the notice of the author, and which may properly be diftributed under the heads of Botany, Mineralogy, and Zoology, together with fome ftrictures on the origin of Prairies, the caufe of the muddinefs of the Miffouri, of volcanic appearances, and other natural phenomena which were met with in the courfe of this interefting tour. This volume will alfo contain a comparative view of twenty three vocabularies of diftinct Indian languages, procured by captains Lewis and Clark, on the voyage, and will be ornamented and embellifhed with a much greater number of plates than will be beftowed on the firft part of the work as is intended that every fubject of natural hiftory which is entirely new, and of which there are a confiderable number, fhall be accompanied by an appropriate engraving illuftrative of it.

This diftribution of the work has been made with a view to the accommodation of every defcription of readers, and is here offered to the patronage of the public in fuch fhape, that all perfons wifhing to become fubfcribers, may accommodate themfelves with either of the parts, or the entire work, as it fhall be moft convenient to themfelves.

Detached from this work, there will be publifhed

LEWIS & CLARK's
MAP OF NORTH AMERICA,

From Lon. 0 deg. weft, to the Pacific Ocean, and between 36 deg. and 52 deg. north Lat. with extenfive marginal notes——dimenfions 5 feet 8 inches by 3 feet 10 inches.

Embracing all their late difcoveries, and that part of the continent heretofore the leaft known. This map will be compiled from the beft maps now extant, as well publifhed as in manufcript, from the collective information of the beft informed travellers through the various portions of that region, and corrected by a feries of feveral hundred celeftial obfervations, made by captain Lewis during his late tour.

For the convenience of fubfcribers, thefe feveral works will be delivered at the moft refpectable commercial towns and at the feats of government of the refpective ftates and territories within the Union; no advance is required, nor will payment be demanded until fuch delivery is made.

The price of part the firft in two vols. will be Ten DOLLARS, and that of part the fecond in one volume, Eleven DOLLARS, delivered in boards. Price of the Map, ten DOLLARS.

☞ Any perfons who may have fubfcribed for thefe works, to lifts which contain no ftipulated prices for the fame, and who may be diffatisfied with the terms now propofed, are at liberty to withdraw their names from fuch lifts, at any time prior to the 1ft day of December next.

LAUDABLE.

To the Non-resident Proprietors of Lands situated in the state of Ohio!

NO perfon poffeffing common feelings of humanity, can for a moment reflect upon the fituation of the Land of the non-refident proprietors in the weftern country (where they are fubject to be fold for taxation and no hopes of redemption) without pitying the miferies of the truly unfortunate or the misfortunes of a family, ftripped of their dependence!!! The hungry fpeculator ftands ready to grafp the fortunes of thefe unfortunate perfons, and although he may feize that which does not enrich himfelf, he may, neverthelefs place the property of the non-refident in fuch fituation, that the expence of the redemption would be almoft as great a lofs to the original proprietor, as the land would be worth—fuch circumftances as thefe call aloud for a permanent agent for the non refidents in the ftate of Ohio.

Having been folicited from various quarters to embark in the bufinefs of an Agent for non refidents, I had determined to offer my fervices laft fall when the recommendatory letter fubjoined was figned; but from the bufinefs, which, at that period engaged my attention from other quarters, I could only be induced to tranfact bufinefs in that capacity for a few friends. Having difengaged myfelf from thofe concerns, I now tender my fervices to non-refident proprietors of lands fituated in the ftate of Ohio; who, though they are difperfed throughout the United States, have an opportunity now afforded them, of employing an agent to attend their bufinefs, whofe endeavor it will be to difcharge it to their fatisfaction.

Thofe perfons who are defirous of employing me as their agent, will addrefs letters to this place by poft, defignating the bufinefs required to be performed; the fituation of the land, the number of the warrant, entry, and furvey, in whofe name the fame may have been entered furveyed or patented, or in whofe name it was entered with the Auditor for taxation, and in what diftrict or upon what water courfe the fame may be fituated, or as accurate a defcription as the nature of the cafe will permit.

Should perfons wifh their lands redeemed from purchafers, if it belong to heirs it will be neceffary to forward proper vouchers to that effect; if they wifh their lands fold, divided or difpofed of in any manner whatever, proper authority fhould accompany their letters, and their bufinefs will be attended to, upon the following

CONDITIONS:

1ft. Paying taxes, taking receipts and tranfmitting duplicates to my employer, for every tract one dollar, and a commiffion of two and a half per cent. upon all monies received and paid for taxes.

2d. Selling or redeeming lands, &c. from 6 to 10 per cent. or whatever the expence and trouble attending the bufinefs may be reafonably worth.

3d. All letters addreffed to me muft be poft paid. Notes muft be enclofed covering the amount of commiffion and fees, as fpecified, and the amount of taxes which may be nearly afcertained (if the quantity of the land is known) from the following rates of taxation impofed by law, viz. firft rate land 90 cents; fecond rate 65 cents, and third rate 40 cents, per hundred acres.

4th. All employers will pleafe to defignate their addrefs and place of refidence.

THOMAS S. HINDE.

Chillicothe, ftate of Ohio, July 11th, 1807.

☞ The fale of non-refidents lands will commence the firft Monday in December next.

Chillicothe, December 6th, 1806.

From our acquaintance with Thomas S. Hinde, and being informed that he offers his fervices as agent for the proprietors of lands, who are non refidents, within the ftate of Ohio, we feel no hefitation in recommending him to our refpective friends, acquaintances and all non refident proprietors as a proper perfon to be employed in that bufinefs; and from our acquaintance with him, conceive that he will difcharge the duties affigned him, with fidelity, promptitude and difpatch.

Given under our hands at Chillicothe, the date above written.
