

THE SWARTWOUT LINEAGE.

residence, on the northwest corner of Washington and Franklin streets, in Tarrytown, is still familiarly called "the Swartwout homestead." Not far from it, on the west side of Broadway, south of Franklin street, can be seen the mansion of Colonel Barnardus

SILHOUETTE OF STEUBEN SWARTWOUT.

Swartwout, his father, in which the distinguished Revolutionary officer and wealthy New York merchant died, on October 8, 1824.

CCCXLVI. James, son of Barnardus and Mary Brower Swartwout, born in New York city, on December 3, 1796, married Catharine ———, born on February 13, 1796, and died on October 20, 1829. He died in 1866.

Children :

670. James Oscar.

671. Catharine.

672. Mary Eliza.

CCCXLVIII. Maria, daughter of Barnardus and Mary Brower Swartwout, born in New York city, on March 18, 1790, married in Yonkers, Westchester County, N. Y., on May 4, 1809, John