

execution of all high and low rights, by reason of the aforesaid conveyed property one to the other, at all times free to deliver, to guard, and to prove above all adverse actions, debts, taxes, and every legal claim from the date of this, all just without craft.

Wherefore to witness and establish these, I, Joachim Alting, burgomaster aforesaid, have affixed, at the request, and on the confession of the above reciprocal appearers, in quality as aforesaid, my customary seal, together with my name, lawfully subscribed below this bill of partition or outhung conveyance.

Done at Groningen, in the year of our Lord sixteen hundred and seventeen, the fourth day of June.

[Subscribed] J. Alting [with a few strokes].

Roleff Swartwoldt, Trijke Rolef, Grietjen Halewech, Hindrick Eitinck, Johan Allers.

Registered the sixteenth of June, anno XVI^e seventeen.

From the Record of Sealing of the city of Groningen. (Imperial Archive in Groningen. Judiciary archives. III. N^o.)

Registered, November 1, 1617.