

The Rural Carolinian.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN AGRICULTURAL MAGAZINE.

HANDSOMELY ILLUSTRATED.

The Rural Carolinian is specially devoted to the development of the AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL and POMOLOGICAL interests of the South; and by strict attention to its specialty and furnishing information in regard thereto not to be found in any other publication in the world, it has obtained an

Immense Circulation in the Cotton States;

And owing to the universal attention that has of late years been directed to the great Southern staples—

COTTON, RICE AND SUGAR,

It has a constantly increasing circulation, not only in the Northern and Western States, but also in Europe, British India, and South America.

The LOW PRICE of subscription—

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM,

Puts it within the reach of every farmer, while at the same time it gives more for the money than many higher-priced publications, having in every number

64 Royal Octavo Pages of Reading Matter,

Besides ADVERTISEMENTS and ILLUSTRATIONS.

For its value as an advertising medium, the Publishers refer to:
