

Whatever Is, Is Right.

A WEEKLY RELIGIOUS JOURNAL

DEVOTED TO THE DOCTRINE INDICATED BY ITS TITLE.

Published at 25 Bromfield St., Boston.

PRICE: $2 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

Advertising Rates:

Advertisements inserted on the most reasonable terms. One square, not over twelve lines, one insertion, 75 cents; for one month, $2 25; three months, $5; six months, $10; one year, $15, Payable in advance.

The Pilot,

PUBLISHED BY PATRICK DONOHUE, 19 and 21 Franklin St., Boston, Mass.

Rates of Advertising in the Pilot: 5th page, 1st insertion, per line, (Agate), 30 cents; each subsequent insertion, 25 cts.; 6th and 7th pages, 1st insertion, per line, 20 cts.; each subsequent insertion, $162-3 cts. BUSINESS NOTICES, 5th page.—Reading matter, per line, each insertion, 50 cts. BUSINESS NOTICES, 5th page.—“Business Record Column,” per line, each insertion, 30 cts. INFORMATIONS.—(Inquiries of Missing Friends), for each three insertions, $1 50. 1 column, 5th page.—1st insertion, $75; each subsequent insertion, $50; 1 column, 6th page, 1st insertion, $60; each subsequent insertion, $40; 1 column, 6th and 7th pages, 1st insertion, $10; each subsequent insertion, $7; 1-2 column, 5th page, 1st insertion, $38; each subsequent insertion, $26; 1-2 column, 6th page, 1st insertion, $31; each subsequent insertion, $21; 1-2 column, 6th and 7th pages, 1st insertion, $21; each subsequent insertion, $14; 1-4 column, 5th page, 1st insertion, $29; each subsequent insertion, $13; 1-4 column, 6th page, 1st insertion, $16; each subsequent insertion, $8; 1-4 off above for three months; 1-3 off above for 6 months; 1-2 off above for 12 months. The attention of advertisers is directed to The Pilot as a medium for advertising every article used in a household. Circulation, 50,000.

ESTABLISHED IN 1840.

The American Railway Times.

TWENTY-THIRD YEARLY VOLUME.

Devoted to Civil and Mechanical Engineering, Railway Management, Iron and Steel Manufactures, &c. New Inventions and Devices in Machinery illustrated and described. This is the best advertising medium for every article used in Railway operation or construction. It is read by the great mass of Railway Presidents, Superintendents, Master Mechanics and Buying Agents; by Contractors, Engineers, Locomotive and Car Builders, Machinists, Supply Agents, &c.

Advertising Rates:

Per square, 13-8 inch in depth of column.
 For one year, $10 | For six months, $25
 For three months, 15 | For transient advertising, each insertion, 2

SUBSCRIPTION: $1 PER ANNUM.

JOHN A. HAVEN, Editor and Proprietor, - - GEO. L. VOSE, C. E., Associate Editor.
 No. 60 Federal Street, Boston, Mass.

The American Miscellany.

A Magazine of complete stories, containing one hundred and forty-four columns of choice reading, comprising the best Romances, Sketches of Adventure, Travel, History, Biography, Essays, Poems, Physiological and Philosophical Pieces, Anecdotes, Wit and Humor, Enigmas and Puzzles, together with a great variety of condensed miscellany to suit all classes of readers.

TERMS: ONE COPY, ONE YEAR, $3. SINGLE COPY, 25 CENTS.

Terms of Advertising:

OUTSIDE PAGE OF COVER.	SECOND PAGE OF COVER.	THIRD PAGE OF COVER.
1 page, per month, $75; 1-2, $10	1 page, per month, $5; 1-2, $35	1 page, per month, $55; 1-2, $30
1-4 " " " 25; 1-8, 13	1-4 " " " 18; 1-8, 10	1-4 " " " 16; 1-8, 9

The above rates include insertion in buck numbers, of which a good many are issued every month in addition to regular number.

THE COMIC VENTILATOR.

An illustrated Magazine of general Wit and Humor. Circulation, 40,000. Advertising terms proportionate to the MISCELLANY. Address all orders to

JAMES H. BRIGHAM,
 14 Devonshire St., Boston, Mass.