

GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ADVERTISE IN

The Christian Union,

WITH A CIRCULATION LARGER THAN ANY OTHER RELIGIOUS WEEKLY IN THE UNITED STATES.

(except one, which is over twenty-two years old.)

FIRST—Henry Ward Beecher is Editor of the paper, and it goes far and wide.

SECOND—Its Circulation is very large, and constantly growing.

THIRD—Its Subscribers and Readers are among the most intelligent and well-to-do classes of the land.

FOURTH—Its Handsome and Convenient Form makes it a favorite with readers who dislike the unwieldy bulk of the "blanket sheets;" while its neat advertising pages are made up so that all will be either outside or opposite reading matter.

FIFTH—The Unexceptionable Class of Advertising found in its pages has been, and will continue to be, a characteristic feature of the paper, as a religious family journal.

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

Forty Cents per Line, each insertion; Outside, Fifty Cents per Line, each insertion.

Special Notices, as "reading matter," seventy-five cents per line. Cuts, double rates.

Agate measure, fourteen lines to the inch.

LIBERAL DISCOUNTS ON REPEATED INSERTIONS. SEND FOR TERMS.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY.

"HENRY WARD BEECHER'S Christian Union seems to share the successful popularity of all the enterprises which are lifted along by his big heart and brain."—New York Tribune.

"Not only the ablest and best, but also, as we suppose, the most popular of American religious periodicals."—The Nation (N. Y.)

"THE CHRISTIAN UNION will soon be at the head of our religious press, if it is not already."—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

J. B. FORD & CO., Publishers,

No. 27 Park Place, New York City.

The New York Citizen & Round Table

IS THE LARGEST LITERARY AND

MOST CAREFULLY EDITED FAMILY PAPER IN THE COUNTRY.

ITS EDITORIALS AND CONTRIBUTED ARTICLES ARE FROM THE PENS OF THE MOST BRILLIANT WRITERS OF THE DAY.

The department of Field Sports and Natural History is under the charge of one of the Commissioners of Fisheries for the State of New York.

The Latest Dramatic Intelligence is given, with honest and independent criticisms on theatrical performances.

Fashionable Gossip is furnished from time to time, and the criticisms concerning Art and Artistic Matters are fair, truthful, or prejudiced, and by competent writers.

Special attention is given to Reviews and Criticisms of Standard New and Periodical Literature.

The Political Department will always be found fresh and interesting, containing all the latest developments in City, State and National politics, and exposing every scheme of corruption without regard to party.

THE CITIZEN AND ROUND TABLE presents unusual advantages in its ADVERTISING COLUMNS. It has the best and wealthiest class of readers, and a large and rapidly increasing circulation.

All communications relating to the Editorial or Business Departments, must be addressed to

THE NEW YORK CITIZEN, No. 32 Beekman St., New York.