La America Ilustrada.

AN ILLUSTRATED JOURNAL IN THE SPANISH LANGUAGE.

PUBLISHED TRI-MONTHLY, ON THE EVE OF THE SAILING OF THE REGULAR SOUTH AMERICAN PACKETS.

"LA AMERICA ILUSTRADA is the name of a new illustrated paper, published by J. C. Rodrigues & Co., New York. It is published in the Spanish language, tri-monthly, on the eve of the sailing of the South American packets, for circulation in the Spanish-speaking countries to the south of us. The second number has just been issued, containing fine engravings and excellent reading that cannot fail to make it a popular success. It compares favorably with any of our American productions."—The Boston Post.

"LA AMERICA ILUSTRADA is the title of an illustrated Spanish journal published in New York. The first number is before us, and we must confess that for richness and variety of engravings, typographical neatness and general appearance, it surpasses any of the illustrated Eastern weeklies published in English. The tropical and Oriental artistic sketches have great warmth and life-like power. As a literary journal, LA AMERICA ILUSTRADA takes high rank. Among its special contributors are such eminent Spanish-American writers as Senora Juana Manso, member of the Committee of Public Instruction of Buenos Ayres—a noble woman, whose labors have been incessant in the cause of popular education; Hon. Antonio Flores, Minister of Ecuador in Washington; Professor Mantilla, of New York University; Don Jose Antonio Calcano, a member of the Spanish Academy, and the most distinguished of South American poets. Other writers of no less distinction contribute to its columns. This new journal covers the fields of literature, philosophy, politics, education, arts, science and commerce, and has for its special object the diffusion among Latin-Americans of "those political and social principles which have raised the United States to its actual splendor." Not only Spanish-Americans, but every person speaking the rich, beautiful and vigorous Spanish language, will find LA AMERICA ILUSTRADA a fountain of intellectual wealth and artistic beauty. Published by J. C. Rodrigues & Co., New York."—San Francisco News Letter.

"Perhaps the most elegantly-printed newspapers in America are O NOVO MUNDO, a Portuguese illustrated monthly, published by J. C. Rodrigues & Co., New York, for the Brazilian public, as well as for readers of Portuguese here; and a Spanish tri-monthly, LA AMERICA ILUSTRADA, of the same size and general character, and published by the same firm, for the Spanish-speaking Americans. Both use the plates of engravings designed for European and American illustrated papers; for instance, THE NEW WORLD of February 23, has the fine portrait of Charles Sumner; that appeared originally in Every Saturday, as well as a larger portrait of the Brazilian Viscount of Itaboraity; and ILLUSTRATED AMERICA, of February 23, has an English head of Gladstone, and an American one of Bryant. The editorial contents of both papers are more than respectable, and in the Spanish one much space is given to poetry and literature. We notice there a paper on the famous romance of chivalry, 'Triste, the White,' ironically complimented by Cervantes. The Spanish journal contains also a letter from Donna Juana Manso, at Buenos Ayres, and verses by two Cuban poets and a Venezuelan. The Portuguese journal (Brazilian rather), gives much space to the quarrel between England and the United States."—Springfield Republican.
