

The Illustrated Christian Weekly

Is the only Illustrated Religious Weekly in the United States.

Its rapid increase of circulation the past two years, is partly owing to the fact of the unsectarian character of the paper, which enables it to circulate among all denominations.

Its illustrations are the very best obtainable, and while adding to the beauty of the paper, cause it to be preserved.

A limited space is devoted to advertisements suited to the character of the paper. For further particulars, address F. W. WAGNER, Managing Publisher.

Specimen Copies Free. Subscription $2 a Year.

The American Commercial Times.

A weekly journal, devoted to Commerce, Finance, Manufactures and American Industries generally; reaches nearly every branch of trade in all sections of the United States. Twelve pages, 11x15; 25,000 readers. It contains very interesting sketches upon general American industries, of great value to importers, jobbers and manufacturers. It is instructive to young men, who can, through this medium, find truthful histories of our prominent merchants, and the beginning, progress and growth of our great commercial houses, a few sketches of which appear in each week's issue. THE AMERICAN COMMERCIAL TIMES is a paper containing valuable information, and every business man should have it for himself and sons. Files of this journal are kept at the various Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, and the Principal Hotels in all the prominent commercial cities of the Union. It is one of the best weekly commercial journals published in New York, and, in its peculiar field of utility, stands entirely unsurpassed. Subscription $5 per annum, in advance. Rates of Advertising—Two squares (six inches) 1 year, $220, 6 mos., $125, 3 mos., $80; 1 square (3 inches) 1 year, $125, 6 mos., $80, 3 mos., $50.
