

PROSPECTUS FOR 1873 AND 1874.

The Shipping and Commercial List

AND NEW YORK PRICE CURRENT.

A semi-weekly sheet, devoted to the Shipping, Mercantile and Financial interests of the city and country, will begin its LIXTH Volume, new series, January 1, 1873, having been originally established in the year 1796.

This paper has long been recognized, not only as the oldest, but the most correct and reliable of all similar publications in this city competing for public favor, giving the earliest and best information required by business men, WITHOUT ANY ADMIXTURE OF IRRELEVANT MATTER.

In its columns are found editorials on every subject relating to the trade and commerce of this and foreign countries; a thorough resume of the financial and business aspects of the times, and an intelligent summary of commercial news from every quarter of the globe.

Our Market Reports give a very comprehensive review of the trade of New York, embracing almost every article of merchandise known in commercial circles, including Drugs and Dyes, Paints and oils, Cotton, Groceries, Breadstuffs, Provisions, Fruits, Spices, Metals, Freights, Hardware, various Manufactured Articles, &c., &c. Also, Report of Groceries, Drugs, Fruits, Spices, Metals, &c., in neighboring and foreign markets.

A list of vessels in port more complete in its details than any ever before attempted in this city.

Annual statements of the Crops and Trade in Cotton, Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, Naval Stores Petroleum, Tobacco, Tea, Hemp, Hides, &c., &c.

Receipts, Exports, Stocks, and Consumption of Cotton, Provisions, Breadstuffs, and other merchandise.

An extended Prices Current of nearly every article of Merchandise in the market, of Domestic or Foreign production.

Imports at New York, both Foreign and Coastwise.

Custom House Entries.—The daily entries of Drugs, Oils, Paints, Colors, &c., by what vessel and to whom consigned.

Exports from this and other leading ports of the country, including the Pacific Coast, as well as from foreign ports to the United States.

Together with a great variety of commercial matter, original and selected, of interest and value to every business man throughout the country.

Our annual statements of Sugar, Cotton, Coffee, Molasses, Petroleum, Naval Stores, &c., are standard authority all over the world, no other having ever come into competition with them, and our Semi-weekly Review of the Market has had a longer existence, and obtained a more widespread reputation for its uniform correctness and reliability, than any other publication of its class.

The gentlemen engaged in the management of the paper, have devoted their undivided attention to it for the past thirty years or more, and claim a thorough acquaintance with the wants of the mercantile community, as well as the ability to supply them.

As an advertising medium for our Merchants, Bankers, Shipowners and Trading Classes generally, we have no superior, as our circulation is large and found in every city town and village in the United States, as well as in all the leading centers of Europe, where commerce has a foothold.
