Pittsburgh Herald.

The City of Pittsburgh is divided into two parts by the Monongahela river. The section lying on the south bank is Pittsburgh South, and contains about 40,000 inhabitants. This section is chiefly devoted to manufacturing, as rolling mills, glass works, founderies, &c. The PITTSBURGH HERALD is

THE ONLY PAPER PRINTED ON THE SOUTH SIDE.

It is owned by resident manufacturers and business men of the South Side. Many of them are connected with the City Councils, Public Works, and other places of public trusts. The HERALD, in consequence of the foregoing, and a large circulation, exercises a greater influence on the South Side than any other newspaper. The HERALD is not a re-hash of other journals, but is filled with live matter having a local interest. Address,
