WHY? WHY? WHY?

The reasons why are numerous. The JOURNAL OF COMMERCE is taken more generally by these sections of trade tributary to St. Paul than any other paper. It furnishes thoroughly reliable market quotations and reviews. The trades rely on its reports. Its success has been attained by its proving itself ALIVE to the interests of its patrons. Its circulation is all good; no dead stock on its mailing books; none required.

Published Weekly (Thursday) at $2 per Annum.
