The Central Georgian,

ESTABLISHED IN 1838.

Published Weekly, at Sandersville, Ga., at $2 per Annum; $1 for Six Months.

The GEORGIAN circulates through the whole length of the Central Railroad, from Savannah to Macon, finding subscribers at almost every post-office on the route. It permeates extensively through the counties of Jefferson, Emanuel, Scriven, Montgomery, Laurens, Telfair, Burke, Bullock, Tatnall, Johnson, Wilkinson and Washington, and has now a larger number of subscribers by several hundred than it ever had in its most prosperous days, and by far the largest circulation of any weekly paper in Central Georgia. Over a very large scope in some of these counties it is the sole medium of communication, and the class of subscribers are the interior merchants and the substantial planters of the country.
