This Journal, established the beginning of the present year, has had an average bona fide circulation for the past ten weeks of its career of over one thousand copies, exclusive of its exchange list, and offers a good medium for advertising in Westchester County. No objectionable advertisements will be admitted, nor cuts of any size taken. Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. will make contracts for this Journal.

Cash Rates for Advertising:

Ten cents a line for one insertion; eight cents a line each subsequent insertion; seven cents a line each time when inserted four times; six cents a line each time when inserted thirteen times; three and one-half cents a line each time when inserted twenty-six times; two and one-half cents a line each time when inserted fifty-two times. No advertisements taken under above rates for less than ten lines space of this type, but where twenty lines or more are taken a discount will be made from these rates in proportion to the space occupied, and the time for which it is to continue. Cuts or stereotype plates will be charged double the above rates, and then inserted only by special agreement.
