Scioto Valley Post,

CHILLICOTHE, OHIO.

JOHN P. BURNS,

PUBLISHER.

A Democratic Journal, independent of Cliques and "Rings." The Workingman's Friend. The Post was established in December, 1871, and through the city and county in which it is published was well fitted with papers printed at home and abroad, yet its success has been splendid. To no other cause can this be ascribed than the fact that it has fixed political opinions, but gives its readers the benefit of all sides of every important case. No vulgarity is permitted in its columns, nor anything which would tend to deprave the young or pander to the bad passions. Being beautifully printed, and giving all the news, crisp and spicy, it is read with eagerness and pleasure. Advertisers will bear this in mind.

Cleveland Sunday Morning Voice,

PUBLISHED BY

W. S. ROBISON,

65 and 67 Frankfort St.,

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

The SUNDAY VOICE was established in 1871, and is the only Sunday paper published in Cleveland, a city with a population of 120,000 inhabitants. The VOICE is independent in politics and religion, and one of the best advertising mediums in this section of the State. It has a bona fide circulation of 3,000.
