The SOUTHERN GRANGER, as its name indicates, will be devoted to the interests of the patrons of husbandry. It will be our aim to make it not only one of the largest and cheapest papers in the State but a fearless and incorruptible champion of the industrial classes. Everything that will conduce to the welfare of the farmer and the mechanic, that will tend to their social and moral elevation, will find a place in our columns. We will endeavor to make the GRANGER attractive to the young, and an ever welcome visitor in the family circle. We shall give in a condensed form the current news of the month; full market reports from all of the principal cities. Our readers may always rely upon the accuracy of our market reports.
