

Harper's Periodicals.

All of these are illustrated in the best style, and are beautiful specimens of artistic and mechanical work. We doubt if any other publishing house in the world does so much for the education of the people. These periodicals are always on the side of good morals, good citizenship, and good government.—The Methodist.

Harper's Magazine.

A Complete Set of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, now comprising Fifty-one Volumes, in neat Cloth binding, will be sent by express, freight at expense of purchaser, for $2 25 per volume. Single volumes, by mail, post-paid, $3; in Half Calif, $5 25. Cloth cases for binding, 58 cents, by mail, post-paid. Back numbers from the beginning can at all times be supplied, and will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of 35 cents per number. An analytical index to the first 50 volumes is now ready, bound uniformly with the magazine. Sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of $3; half calf, $5 25.

Publishers and editors both appear to understand the needs of the popular mind, even those needs of which many people are unconscious themselves. They aim to awaken a taste for knowledge as well as to gratify it, and their system in doing this is to make knowledge entertaining. The MAGAZINE penetrates into the log-houses of Western farmers as well as into city drawing-rooms. Its comprehensiveness makes it acceptable to everybody who is pleased by pictures, and who has any love of reading. The serial novels by eminent English and American novelists, the short, bright, and telling stories of American domestic life, the profusely-illustrated articles of travel and adventure, the carefully-prepared essays on political, historical, and scientific subjects, the wealth of rich and racy reflection in "The Editor's Easy Chair" and of anecdote in "The Editor's Drawer," are among its constant attractions to the general reader.—Boston Globe.

The character which this magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The MAGAZINE has done good, and not evil, all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Harper's Weekly.

The Annual Volumes of HARPER'S WEEKLY, in neat Cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense, for $7 each, and in Half Morocco, on receipt of $10 50. A Complete Set, comprising Nineteen Volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $5 25 per volume, freight at expense of purchaser. Cloth cases for binding, $1, by mail, post-paid.

The WEEKLY is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the WEEKLY is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The ablest description cannot equal the impression given by a striking picture, and while the written or spoken words are soon forgotten, the impression made by the artist is indelible. The WEEKLY maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Harper's Bazar.

The Eight Volumes of HARPER'S BAZAR, for the years 1868 to 1875, elegantly bound in Green Morocco Cloth, will be sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $5 25 per volume, freight at expense of purchaser. Single volumes, in Cloth, $7; Half Morocco, $10 50. Cloth cases for binding, $1, by mail, post-paid.

The BAZAR is the organ of the fashionable world, and the expounder of that world's laws; and it is the authority in all matters of manners, etiquette, costume, and social habits. It fills a place that no other publication ever has even sought to fill, and does so because of the amplitude of its range and from its breadth and extent of view.—Boston Traveller.

The BAZAR commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the BAZAR is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords, and has become an established authority.—Evening Post, New York.
