IT PAYS To Advertise in the . . . PACIFIC BAPTIST

(Continuing the LEADER of San Francisco and the VANGUARD of Seattle).

If you wish to reach Pacific Coast People. There are 2,500,000 of them. Of these 75,000 are Baptists. Extending 1,500 miles from Alaska to Mexico, they occupy five great States and one great province, and are organized into five conventions, yet they have but ONE PAPER. For this reason it has the largest bona-fide circulation of any religious Weekly on the coast, and in Oregon the largest of any Weekly except that of the great Oregonian itself.

Formerly advertisers had to reach these people through three papers, located in three States, now they can reach all through ONE,
