

The North American Review

is read by thinking people—by broad minded men and women everywhere who are interested in the current events and problems of to-day. Every profession is represented in the constituency of THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW. It brings its readers in touch with the world's brightest minds—gives them food for profitable thought and study, and is held by them in the highest esteem. The most successful advertisers have learned by actual experience that it reaches a very large class of desirable people not approachable in any other way. Special articles devoted to the interests of women make it especially valuable to advertisers who wish to appeal to the wants of women. No other periodical offers its advertisers better returns than THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

Texas Christian Advocate

has a larger circulation than any other religious paper in the South or Southwest. It is the representative paper of the five Methodist Episcopal Conferences of Texas and New Mexico—one of the most fertile fields in which an advertiser could plant the seed of business. A record of forty-eight years' success, and the brightest prospects of continued prosperity. Will you join us?
