The Christian Register

ESTABLISHED 1821

IS A REPRESENTATIVE UNITARIAN PAPER.

For the best class of advertisements (and no other are admitted to its columns) the quality of its circulation is unsurpassed. It has a reading and buying constituency.

Its weekly edition is between 8,000 and 10,000 copies, and its Subscription Books are at all times open to the inspection of present and would-be advertisers.

It claims the credit of being at least one of the best printed of the Religious Weeklies, and its advertisements are particularly well presented.

The Argonaut

Is the only High-Class Political and Literary Weekly published on the Pacific Coast, and is also the Best Advertising Medium. Its circulation is greater than that of any other publication on the Pacific Coast, except three Dailies, and thousands of stamped copies are remailed by subscribers to their friends every week. It is read in the homes of all the well-to-do. Its advertisements are read more than those in a Daily, owing to the ephemeral character of the latter. Its circulation is not confined to one city or locality, but extends all over the Pacific Coast and throughout the United States, as well as to foreign countries. Advertising rates, 15 cents per agate line. Send for free Sample Copy.
