

Good Housekeeping

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

This magazine has won success, from the faithfulness with which its energies have been devoted to its established motto:

"IN THE INTERESTS OF THE HIGHER LIFE OF THE HOUSEHOLD."

It has won from both Press and People the proud distinction of being "The Best Family Magazine in Existence." It is Original, Unique and Popular. The Housewife needs it, the Kitchen Maid wants it, the Maid-of-all Work is not happy without it, and even Paternfamilias pleads to have the first look at it. It has a wide circulation—not a million or half million, but one of great interest to those who have the means with which to buy, and consequently of special value to those who have things to sell.
