

A straw—

and the wind is blowing stronger.

The Corresponding Secretary of the Church Periodical Club of the Diocese of Central New York publishes a list of applications received for various magazines and papers, from which it appears that the society has received more requests for THE LIVING CHURCH than for any other one publication.

The Living Church

is in its eighteenth year, reaches 15,000 homes weekly, and you cannot cover the Episcopal field without it—few attempt to. If this fact is of interest to you in a business sense, write for further details to
