

The sketch pedigree, referred to in Mr. Tucker's letter, is, in substance, as follows, viz :

I. HENRY PAGE, of Wembley, in the Parish of Harrow, County Middlesex, England, was born about 1500, and married about 1525 A. D.

Arms—Or, a fesse dancette between three martlets ; azure, a bordure of the last.

In the above diagram, AZURE (blue) is represented by horizontal parallel straight lines, and OR (gold) by dots.

II. JOHN PAGE, one of the sons of the above-named Henry Page, and of the same place, was born there about A. D. 1528. He married, about 1553; Awdrye, daughter of Thomas Redding, of Hedgeston, County Middlesex, England. They had two sons, viz :

1. John Page, eldest, one of the masters in Chancery. He was living in 1634.
2. Richard Page.

III. RICHARD PAGE, second son of the above-named John Page, and Awdrye Redding, his wife, was born at Wembley, about 1556, and removed to Uxenden, in the Parish of Harrow, County Middlesex, England. He was living in 1634. His will is dated 15 Aug., 1638, and was proved 6 Dec., 1642. He was married twice, but had no issue by one of his wives, probably the second. Both his wives died ante 1638. By one of his wives, probably the first, whose name was Frances, he had ten children. The eldest of these was John Page, of the middle temple, London. One of his sons, probably the seventh, was named Thomas.

IV. THOMAS PAGE, about the seventh son of the above-named Richard Page and Frances, his wife, was born at Uxenden about 1597, and removed to Sudbury, in the Parish of Harrow, County
