

He married, about 1776, Elizabeth Carter, daughter of Charles Carter, of Fredericksburg, Virginia. Their children were:

1. Elizabeth Page (called "Betsey"), born about 1777; married about 1797, Philip Burwell, of Chapel Hill, Frederick County, Virginia, son of Col. Nathaniel Burwell, of Carter Hall, Clarke County, Virginia, and Susan Grymes, his first wife. No issue known.
2. Charles Page, born about 1778; married in Sept'r, 1799, Sally Cary, fourth daughter and sixth child of Col. William Nelson, of the Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia, who was the eldest son and child of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia. (See Nelson.)
3. Mann Page, born about 1780; married, about 1803, Mary Chiswell Nelson, sister of his brother Charles' wife.

V. GWYNN PAGE, fourth son and child of Mann Page, of Rosewell, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Anne Corbin Tayloe, his second wife, was born at Rosewell, about 1758, and removed to Kentucky.

He married twice—the names of both wives being unknown—and had three children, as follows, viz:

1. Dr. Matthew Page, born about 1789; removed to Clarke County, Virginia, and married, about 1814, Mary Randolph (called "Polly"), daughter of Archie Cary Randolph, of that county, who was the eldest son of Thomas Isham Randolph, of Dungeness, Goochland County, Virginia. (See Randolph.) Their children were (1) Archie Cary Page, (2) Gwynn Page, (3) William Meade Page, and (4) Matthewella Page (called "Mattie"), who married, about 1841, Benjamin Harrison, Jr., of "Berkeley" (Harrison's Landing), on James River, Charles City County, Virginia.
2. Gwynn Page, of Louisville, Ky., an eminent lawyer. He removed to San Francisco, Cal., and amassed a large fortune. He died unmarried, and left his money to his sister Lucy.
3. Lucy Page, of San Francisco, Cal., unmarried.

VI. MANN PAGE, of Shelly, Gloucester County, Virginia, eldest son and child of Gov. John Page, of Rosewell, same county, Virginia, and Frances (called "Fannie") Burwell, his first wife; eldest son and child of Mann Page, of the same place, and Alice Grymes, his first wife; eldest son and child of the Hon. Mann Page, Esqr., of the same place, and Judith Carter, his second wife (by whom alone