

VI. FRANCIS PAGE, of Rugswamp, Hanover County, Virginia, eighth child and fifth son of Gov. John Page, of Rosewell, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Frances (called "Fannie") Burwell, his first wife, was born at Rosewell, about 1781, and married, in 1806, Susan (called "Suky"), fourth daughter and tenth child of Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia, and Lucy Grymes, his wife. Their children were as follows, viz:

1. Anzolette Page, born 1807; married, in 1831, Rev. William N. Pendleton, of Lexington, Virginia. (See Pendleton.)
2. Thomas Lucius Page, eldest son, resided at Rugswamp, Hanover County, Virginia, and died there, single, in 1861, aged 52 years.
3. Francis Mann Page, born about 1813; married, 1854, Victorine Valette, of Baltimore, Maryland, and had five children, viz: (1) John Randolph Grymes, (2) Victorine, (3) Rosalie Rosewell, (4) Marie, and (5) Edmund Shelly.
4. Anne Rose Page, born 1815; unmarried, removed to Oakland, Hanover County, Virginia, the residence of Capt. Thomas Nelson.
5. Frances Burwell Page (called "Fannie"), born about 1818; married, 1838, Philip N. Meade. Their children were: (1) William; married in Louisa County, Virginia. No issue. (2) Everard, minister in the Episcopal Church. (3) Philip N., Jr., (4) Harry Vernon, (5) Susan Page, (6) Mary Nelson, (7) Fannie. Four others died infants. Philip N. Meade resided at Mountain View, Clarke County, Virginia. He was the eldest son of Bishop William Meade, of Virginia, and Mary Nelson, his first wife, daughter of Philip Nelson, of Clarke County, Virginia. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Fannie B. P. Meade removed to the Louise Home, Washington, D. C.
6. John Page, born about 1822; removed to Oakland, Hanover County, Virginia, where he married, 1847, Elizabeth Burwell (called "Betsey"), fourth daughter and eighth child of Capt. Thomas Nelson, of the same place. Three children, as follows: (1) Rev. Francis Page, of the Episcopal Church; (2) Thomas N. Page, lawyer, Richmond, Virginia; (3) Rosewell Page, lawyer, Danville, Virginia.
7. Hughella Page, born about 1824, died, single, 1844, aged about 20 years.

VI. CHARLES PAGE, of Hanovertown, Hanover County, Virginia, about the eldest son and second child of Robert Page, of the same place, and Elizabeth Carter, his wife, second son and child of