

Mann Page, of Rosewell, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Anne Corbin Tayloe, his second wife, was born at the first-named place about 1778.

He married, in Sept'r, 1799, Sally Cary, fourth daughter and sixth child of Col. William Nelson, of The Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia, eldest son and child of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia, and was her first husband. (See Nelson.) Their children were as follows, viz:

1. Elizabeth Burwell Page (called "Betsey"), born about 1800; married, about 1820, Dr. B. R. Wellford, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, and was his first wife. She died leaving one child, who married Joseph Atkinson, of North Carolina.
2. Caroline Page, born about 1802; married, about 1822, John C. Polard, of Hanover County, Virginia.
3. Norborne Page, born about 1804; married, about 1829, Mary Jones. No known issue.
4. William A. Page, born about 1806; married, about 1831, Caroline Jones, and died leaving four children, names unknown.
5. Robert C. Page, born about 1808; married, about 1833, Martha Temple, and died without issue, in California. His widow resided in Richmond, Virginia.

VI. MANN PAGE, of Hanovertown, Hanover County, Virginia, about the third child and second son of Robert Page, of the same place, and Elizabeth Carter, his wife, second son and child of Mann Page, of Rosewell, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Anne Corbin Tayloe, his second wife, was born at the first-named place about 1780.

He married, about 1803, Mary Chiswell, eighth child and fifth daughter of Col. William Nelson, of The Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia, eldest son of Secretary Thomas Nelson. Their children were as follows, viz:

1. Robert Page, born about 1804; died unmarried.
2. Charles Page, born about 1806; married, about 1831, Catherine, daughter of Wilson Cary Nelson, of Hanovertown, who was the son of Capt. Thomas Nelson, the third son and child of Secretary Thomas Nelson. No issue known.
3. John F. Page, born about 1808; married, about 1833, Lucy, also a