

1. John Randolph Page, eldest, Physician, of the University of Virginia, Albemarle County, Virginia, was born at Greenland, Gloucester County, Virginia, in 1830. He married, 30th October, 1856, at Eagle Point, Gloucester County, Virginia, Delia, eldest daughter of John Randolph Bryan, of Carysbrook, Fluvana County, Virginia, and Elizabeth Coalter, his wife, who was the daughter of Judge Coalter, and the favorite niece of John Randolph, of Roanoke. Dr. John R. Page, and Delia, his wife, had seven children, as follows, viz: (1) Mann, (2) Charles C., (3) Anne, (4) Delia, (5) Ada S., (6) Joseph B. and (7) John Randolph.
2. Martha T. Page, born at Greenland, Gloucester County, Virginia, about 1834; married, about 1854, H. W. Vandergrift, of Alexandria, Virginia.
3. Elizabeth N. Page (called "Betty"), born about 1836; married, about 1856, James Goggin, of Hempstead, Texas.
4. Richard M. Page, born at same place, about 1838; resides in Gloucester County, Virginia. Married, about 1863, Kate, daughter of the late Jacob Wragg, of Hampton, Elizabeth City County, Virginia. No issue.
5. Peyton N. Page, born at same place, about 1840, lawyer and Commonwealth's Attorney for Gloucester County, Virginia; married, about 1865, Emily, daughter of Wyndham Kemp, of same county, and Anna Louise Perin, his wife. No surviving issue.

VII. CAPTAIN THOMAS JEFFERSON PAGE, U. S. Navy, eighth son and fourteenth child of Mann Page, of Shelly, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Elizabeth Nelson, his wife, was born at Shelly, 8th January, 1808.

He married, at Washington, D. C., in 1838, Benjamina, daughter of Benjamin Price, of Loudon County, Virginia. She resided for many years at Florence, Italy.

Thomas Jefferson Page entered the U. S. Navy in Oct., 1827, as midshipman. He was promoted to the rank of lieutenant, in June, 1833, and to that of captain, in 1855. In the early part of his service he was employed, for a time, on the U. S. Coast Survey. In 1853 he was appointed to the command of an expedition for the exploration of the tributaries of the River La Plata, and adjacent countries, from which he returned in May, 1856, after an absence of three years and four months. His narrative of this expedition was published in 1859, 8vo, New York.

In 1857 Congress made a further appropriation to complete the explora-