

to Clay Bank, Cumberland County, Virginia. He married, secondly, about 1882, Julia Trent, widow of John Taylor Gray, Esqr., of the firm of Adie & Gray, Druggists, Richmond, Virginia.

12. Edward Trent Page, youngest, born 20th May, 1833; removed to Half-way Branch, Cumberland County, Virginia. He married, in 1854, Bettie, daughter of J. S. Nicholas, of Seven Islands, same county.

Children:

- (1) Nannie Nicholas Page, married in Lynchburg.
- (2) Mary Byrd Page.
- (3) John Nicholas Page.
- (4) Edward Trent Page, Jr.
- (5) Bessie Coupland Page.

VI. HENRY PAGE, of Todd County, Kentucky, second son and child of Major Carter Page, of The Fork, Cumberland County, Virginia, and Mary Cary, his first wife, was born at the last-named place, 29th Sept'r, 1785, and died in Kentucky, in 1845, aged 60 years.

He was educated at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia, in the catalogue of which Institution his name appears in the alumni list for 1804. He lived, first, near Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, where all his children were born. He removed to Kentucky about the year 1841.

He married, 23d Dec., 1813, Jane B. Deane, and their children were as follows, viz:

1. Mary Cary Page, called "Polly," born at Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, 27th Oct., 1814, and married, 23d Dec'r, 1840, Rev. George McPhail, of the Presbyterian Church. He died about 1870, while President of Davidson College, North Carolina. Their children were:
  - (1) Jane McPhail, died single.
  - (2) Mary McPhail, married Rev. Mr. Davis, of the Presbyterian Church, and died.
  - (3) Henry McPhail, married, and resides in Norfolk City, Virginia.
  - (4) Lillian McPhail, married Rev. Mr. Irving, of the Presbyterian Church, and died.
2. Thomas Deane Page, eldest son, born at Ca Ira, Cumberland County, Virginia, 27th July, 1816; removed to Henry County, Missouri, where he died, 31st January, 1864, aged 48. He married, 1846,